Ex 1

| | |
|---|---|
| Bitterly cold | a) extremely and unpleasantly cold |
| Snowed under with | b) to have so much work that you have problems dealing with it all |
| Powdery | c) like powder |
| Bundled up | d) to put warm clothes on yourself or someone else |
| Thaw out | e) If you thaw out, you gradually get warm again after being very cold |
| Poised | f) calm and confident |
| to light up like a Christmas tree | g) to look very happy or excited about something |
| break the ice | h) to make people who have not met before feel more relaxed with each other |
| warm up to sb | i) thinking in the same way as someone else |
| Cold snap | j) to begin to like or enjoy someone |
| Winter blues | k) a short period of cold weather |
| | l) a feeling of depression or deep unhappiness associated with experiencing the cold and darkness of winter |

Ex 2

It was _____ outside, so I wore my thick coat, scarf, and gloves.
I'm completely _____ homework this week — I don't know where to start!
The snow was soft and _____, perfect for making a snowman.
Before going outside, she made sure she was fully _____.
After sitting by the heater for a while, my hands finally began to _____.
The model stood _____ on the stage, ready for the performance to begin.
When she saw her best friend enter the room, her face seemed _____ with excitement.
I told a funny story to help _____ during the first day of class.
At first, he was shy, but he slowly started to _____ everyone at the party.
There was a sudden _____ last week, and temperatures dropped below freezing.
I always feel a bit of the _____ in January when the days are short and gray.

LIVEWORKSHEETS