Ex 1

Snowed under with break the ice
Thaw out
Bundled up
Bitterly cold
Poised
Cold snap
Winter blues
to light up like a Christmas tree
warm up to sb Powdery

a) extremely and unpleasantly cold
b) to have so much work that you have problems dealing with it all
c) like powder
d) to put warm clothes on yourself or someone else
e) If you , you gradually get warm again after being very cold
f) calm and confident
g) to look very happy or excited about something
h) to make people who have not met before feel more relaxed with each other
i) thinking in the same way as someone else
j) to begin to like or enjoy someone
k) a short period of cold weather
l) a feeling of depression or deep unhappiness associated with experiencing the cold and darkness of winter

Ex 2

It was _____ outside, so I wore my thick coat, scarf, and gloves.
I'm completely _____ homework this week — I don't know where to start!
The snow was soft and _____, perfect for making a snowman.
Before going outside, she made sure she was fully _____.
After sitting by the heater for a while, my hands finally began to _____.
The model stood _____ on the stage, ready for the performance to begin.
When she saw her best friend enter the room, her face seemed _____ with excitement.
I told a funny story to help _____ during the first day of class.
At first, he was shy, but he slowly started to _____ everyone at the party.
There was a sudden _____ last week, and temperatures dropped below freezing.
I always feel a bit of the _____ in January when the days are short and gray.

LIVEWORKSHEETS