

GERUND OR INFINITIVE?

1. I can't stand to wear / wearing the glasses.
2. John pretended to be / being sick because he didn't want to go to school.
3. My mother avoids to speak / speaking in public.
4. I can't stand to lose / losing you.
5. After a busy week, I decided to go / going on holiday by myself.
6. I refuse to believe / believing that he was innocent.
7. Winter sport is difficult as I spend lots of time to travel / travelling to the places with snow.

1. I act like I know what's right, but I don't. (pretend/ know)

I _____ what's right, but I don't.

2. I hate it when I feel sick. (can't stand/feel)

I _____ sick.

3. I couldn't look at her while she was crying. (avoid/look at)

I _____ her while she was crying.

4. I will go to the cinema with you. (decide/ go)

I _____ to the cinema with you.

5. Yesterday, I cleaned the house for hours. (spend hours/clean)

Yesterday, I _____ the house.

6. He didn't accept to pay the tax bill. (refuse/pay)

He _____ the tax bill.