EXERCISE 1

A			B
come	set	fall	out	up	for
break	bring	call	off	down	across

1. The company plans to _____ _____ a new range of products next year.
2. After months of tension, talks finally _____ _____ without any agreement.
3. The situation _____ _____ urgent action from the authorities.
4. While going through old files, she _____ _____ an important document.
5. He was determined not to _____ _____ his principles, even under pressure.
6. Due to rising costs, several services have _____ _____ in recent months.

EXERCISE 2

A			B
get	take	go	over	up (x2)
bring	set	break	off	down	on

1. It took her a long time to _____ _____ the disappointment.
2. The manager refused to _____ _____ the proposal without careful review.
3. As soon as the alarm _____ _____, everyone left the building.
4. The government plans to _____ _____ unnecessary spending.
5. He finally _____ _____ the courage to speak in public.
6. The negotiations _____ _____ after both sides failed to agree.

EXERCISE 3

A			B
come	fall	go	across	up	out
back	set		off	down

1. The charity was _____ _____ to support victims of flooding.
2. He refuses to _____ _____ his beliefs, no matter the pressure.
3. Sales _____ _____ sharply after the price increase.
4. While researching the topic, she _____ _____ some conflicting data.
5. The lights suddenly _____ _____ during the storm.

LIVEWORKSHEETS