KOON-SUNG

My name is Koon-Sung. I'm an engineer and I'm from Singapore. At the moment, I'm living in Turin in the north of Italy. I'm working on a project to make a road in the mountains. My life here is very different from my life at home. I'm staying in a big house on a hill so I have a great view of the city. The house is near a forest with lots of beautiful trees. From my bedroom window, I can also see the mountains. At the weekend, I enjoy walking in the Aosta Valley and taking photos of waterfalls, rivers and lakes. At home in Singapore, all the buildings are very tall and I can only see the street from my window!

I'm Carla and I'm studying to be a doctor. I'm from Mexico City, but this year I'm on a student exchange programme in the United Arab Emirates. At home in Mexico, I usually go to classes and study a lot, but here I'm working as a doctor in a hospital.

This week I'm on holiday, which is fun. I'm staying on the east coast. My hotel is by the sea and I can spend all day at the beach if I want. There are also lots of boat trips, so I'm visiting the little islands along the coast this week. Today I'm sandboarding in the desert. I'm having a great time!

CARLA
