

WORLD'S KEY

Reading

LEVEL 1

WORLD'S KEY

READING REVISION SHEETS

FIRST TERM

LEVEL 1

 LIVEWORKSHEETS

Lesson 1: Tick Tock

Mark the correct answer.

- What is the genre of the story?
 fantasy realistic fiction
- What two characters are compared in the story?
 Clock and Fairy Watch and Clock
- What are the three words that describe Watch?
 big/heavy/round small/round/light

Lesson 2: Tick Tock

Mark the correct root word.

- houses ouses house ouse
- playing play ing lay
- fits its it fit

Mark the words that are used to compare.

- both but
- different same

Mark the words that are used to contrast.

- but same
- both different

Lesson 3: Tick Tock

Mark the correct answer.

- Which word best describes the story?
 serious joyful sad
- What is the author's purpose in 'Tick Tock'?
 to persuade to inform to entertain
- Clock and Watch tell the weather.
 True False
- Watch is light with a low sound.
 True False
- Clock is found in houses and offices.
 True False
- Fairy is playing sadly with Clock and Watch.
 True False

Lesson 4: Tick Tock

Mark the correct answer.

17. At seven o'clock, Maher _____.

joins his friends to play

wakes up

18. At _____ o'clock, Maher eats his lunch.

two

eight

19. At five o'clock, Maher _____.

joins his friends to play

wakes up

20. At _____ o'clock, Maher goes to bed.

eight

five

Lesson 5: The City of Blocks

Choose the correct answer.

21. _____ is a type of artistic writing that expresses thoughts and feelings.

Poetry

Dialogue

22. The poem consists of _____.

paragraphs

lines and stanzas

23. The poet uses _____ words.

difficult

rhyming

24. The poem "The City of Blocks" teaches us that _____ is important.

doing sports

sharing

25. The blocks that the kids are playing with are _____.

colorful

black and white

Lesson 6: The City of Blocks

Mark the suffix in the underlined word.

26. It will be wonderful to have a good friend.

- ful er

27. Along with a helper, it can be lots of fun!

- hel er

28. I have a handful of toys.

- nd ful

29. Lana is a talented painter.

- er nt

30. We got the crayons out of their colorful box.

- or ful

31. Dina's outfit is beautiful.

- ful bea

Lesson 7: The City of Blocks

Mark the correct rhyming word.

32. enjoys toys blocks

33. duck box luck

34. city large pretty

35. done fun best

Mark the correct answer.

36. This poem includes three stanzas.

- True False

37. Cleaning up cannot be fun.

- True False

38. Circle the value that you can learn from the poem.

Sharing is a fun thing to do with others.

Respecting others is a must.

Lesson 8: The City of Blocks

Read the paragraph, and then mark the correct answer.

Farid is a seven-year-old boy. He is in Grade One. He spends most of his time playing. Farid likes to walk around his neighborhood. He plays happily with his friends. He should study and read stories. Sadly, Farid is not doing very well at school because of this behavior.

39. Farid is in Grade One.

- True False

40. Farid spends his time reading stories.

- True False

Lesson 9: Build a House

Mark the correct answer.

41. What is the genre of the text?

- realistic fiction
 expository text

42. Choose the element of expository text genre.

- The author gives information.
 Magical things might happen.

43. What does the author use in expository text genre?

- facts jokes

44. A house is strong and _____.

- safe unsafe

45. Some floors are made of _____.

- wood
 sand

Lesson 10: Build a House

Mark the correct answer.

46. An antonym is a word that has the same meaning of another word.

- True False

47. In an expository text, the author provides information.

- True False

48. In an expository text, the author entertains us.

- True False

49. In the text "Build a House", the author explains what a house is made up of.

- True False

50. In the text "Build a House", the author's purpose is to inform.

- True False