

19 Multiple choice questions

Term

Who was the first governor of Louisiana after the territory was acquired?

1 of 19

- William Charles Cole Claiborne
- Aaron Burr
- Don Antoine De Ulloa
- James Monroe And Robert Livingston

Term

What were the two transfers involved in the Louisiana Purchase?

2 of 19

- Spain transferred Louisiana to France in 1803, and then France transferred it to the United States on December 20, 1803.
- France transferred Louisiana to Spain in 1803, and then Spain transferred it to the United States on January 15, 1804.
- Spain transferred Louisiana to Britain in 1803, and then Britain transferred it to the United States on March 10, 1803.
- France transferred Louisiana to the United States in 1803, and then the United States transferred it to Britain on June 5, 1803.

Term

What were the administrative units established by Claiborne in Louisiana?

3 of 19

- He split Louisiana into 8 provinces overseen by officials.
- He divided Louisiana into 12 administrative units called parishes.
- He organized Louisiana into 10 districts managed by governors.
- He divided Louisiana into 15 administrative units called counties.

Term

What was the significant outcome of the Treaty of San Ildefonso in 1800?

4 of 19

- It ceded Louisiana to Britain.
- It formed an alliance with France against Spain.
- It returned control of Louisiana back to France.
- It established a trade agreement with Spain.

Term

What did the 1804 law regarding slavery in Louisiana state?

5 of 19

- It was a vital trade route controlled by Spain, complicating access for Americans.
- It made it illegal to import slaves from anywhere other than the U.S.
- It allowed masters to set their slaves free but eliminated self-purchase options.
- It positioned the United States as a potential world power.

Term

How many states were formed from the land acquired in the Louisiana Purchase?

6 of 19

- All or part of twenty states.
- All or part of seven states.
- All or part of fifteen states.
- All or part of ten states.

What river was crucial for transportation in the context of the Louisiana Purchase?

- The Gulf Of Mexico
- The Ohio River Valley
- The Missouri River
- The Mississippi River

What was the main disagreement between Americans and the Spanish regarding the borders?

- They disagreed about trade routes with Spain.
- They disagreed about naval rights in the Atlantic.
- They disagreed about cultural exchanges with Spain.
- They disagreed about the borders separating Spain and the U.S.

What was the largest slave revolt in American history that occurred in 1811?

- The Adams-Onís Treaty (1819)
- The slave revolt in Louisiana involving 150 to 500 slaves.
- He divided Louisiana into 12 administrative units called parishes.
- Burr shot and killed Alexander Hamilton in a duel.

What year did the U.S. ratify the treaty for the Louisiana Purchase?

- 1810
- 1805
- 1803
- 1800

What treaty was negotiated by Thomas Pinckney regarding trade rights?

- Pontiac's Treaty
- Jay's Treaty
- Treaty Of Guadalupe Hidalgo
- Pinckney's Treaty

What was the purchase price for New Orleans during the Louisiana Purchase negotiations?

- $25 million
- $20 million
- $10 million
- $15 million

What was the West Florida Rebellion of 1810?

- English migrants revolted against Spanish rule and declared themselves an independent republic.
- British migrants revolted against French rule and declared themselves an independent republic.
- Burr shot and killed Alexander Hamilton in a duel.
- Spanish migrants revolted against American rule and declared themselves an independent republic.

Term

14 of 19

What treaty clarified the land added to the United States from the Louisiana Purchase?

- The Louisiana Purchase Agreement (1803)
- The Adams-Onís Treaty (1819)
- The Treaty of Paris (1783)
- The Treaty of Ghent (1814)

Term

15 of 19

What did the new slave code in 1806 allow regarding manumission?

- It positioned the United States as a potential world power.
- It made it illegal to import slaves from anywhere other than the U.S.
- It was a vital trade route controlled by Spain, complicating access for Americans.
- It allowed masters to set their slaves free but eliminated self-purchase options.

Term

16 of 19

Who did President Jefferson send to negotiate the purchase of New Orleans?

- Alexander Hamilton and James Madison
- Benjamin Franklin and Samuel Adams
- John Adams and Thomas Jefferson
- James Monroe and Robert Livingston

Term

17 of 19

What significant event involved Aaron Burr during the territorial period?

- Pinckney's Treaty
- Burr shot and killed Alexander Hamilton in a duel.
- English migrants revolted against Spanish rule and declared themselves an independent republic.
- The Adams-Onís Treaty (1819)

Term

18 of 19

What was the significance of the Mississippi River for trade?

- It was a river used for internal transportation only.
- It was a naval route dominated by France.
- It was a vital trade route controlled by Spain, complicating access for Americans.
- It was a minor trade route controlled by Britain.

Term

19 of 19

What was the impact of the Louisiana Purchase on the United States' status?

- It positioned the United States as a potential world power.
- It limited the United States' access to natural resources.
- It positioned the United States as a minor regional power.
- It reduced the United States' influence in North America.