My name is Linh. I'm ten years old. My school is right here in the city where I live. I attend classes from Monday to Friday. My lessons begin at 8 o'clock every morning. I usually walk to school and enjoy the fresh air. However, when it rains, my father often drives me in our family's car. I always wear a blue uniform to school. After class, I sometimes go to science clubs because I enjoy making small robots. This is challenging but exciting. My best friend, Sam, is different from me. He likes playing musical instruments. I am not good at music at all.
