Student's name: _____ Class: _____

WORD FORM (5)

1. His early success in music quickly turned from a casual _____ into a serious and demanding career. (vocation)
2. Her sudden generosity gave him a nagging _____ about her true intentions. (give)
3. Smoking during pregnancy increases the risk of _____. (carry)
4. "Don't worry about the dent in the car; it's so small it's practically _____." (consequence)
5. Despite the table being filled with a decadent feast, she remained _____, choosing only a small portion of salad. (abstain)
6. The new reforms were designed to _____ corrupt officials who had abused their voting rights for years. (enfranchise)
7. Although the rumor spread quickly, it was entirely _____ and didn't damage many employees' reputations. (found)
8. Freedom of speech should be a _____ right. (constitute)
9. The court ruled that the company's negligence was _____ to its workers' longterm- health. (injury)
10. In order to save money, the team completed the renovations _____ over several months. (meal)
11. Modern appliances like dishwashers and vacuums were designed to liberate people from the _____ of housework. (drudge)
12. Stock investors reacted _____ upon the news, selling their shares before understanding the full consequences of their actions. (precipitate)
13. The technician will _____ the software tonight so that operations can resume smoothly tomorrow. (trouble)
14. Their continued _____ in handling customer complaints eventually led to a public relations disaster. (compete)
15. The judge remained _____ towards the supreme court's earlier decision, even when it seemed outdated. (defer)
16. Despite repeated failures, she remained _____ of launching her own sustainable fashion brand. (desire)
17. The billionaire dismissed her work as merely _____ decorations and refused to pay her the amount of money promised. (art)
18. The novelist's _____ lies in her ability to make even the most mundane characters feel deeply human. (art)
19. Researchers at the library discovered the poems while they were carrying out an _____ of documents. (invent)
20. Social media can _____ even a minor trend, turning it into a global conversation overnight. (lever)
21. The documentary aimed to _____ racist attitudes by exposing their harmful consequences. (stigma)
22. Careful data _____ is essential before publishing any scientific study or public report. (valid)
23. Attendance at the safety workshop is _____ for all employees working with hazardous materials. (mandate)
24. Her tone was openly _____, making cooperation with the rest of the team almost impossible. (disdain)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

25. The small but _____ changes in temperature indicated that the experiment was working. (discern)
26. The garden was designed as a _____ space, filled with quiet benches and the gentle sound of running water. (contemplate)
27. His reluctant _____ during the debate signaled that the opposing argument was stronger. (concede)
28. It could be seen that they were living in the most _____ conditions, with their house covered in black mold and stagnant air. (deplore)
29. The report was withdrawn because it contained _____ statistics about national unemployment. (error)
30. The company's _____ structure often discouraged junior staff from sharing innovative ideas. (hierarchy)
31. Her explanation sounded purely _____ and lacked any practical plan for implementation. (notion)
32. Their _____ respect allowed them to resolve conflicts quickly and maintain a productive partnership. (reciprocate)
33. Most residents are _____ citizens who simply want safe streets and honest leadership. (abide)
34. Donating anonymously to support refugees is one example of truly _____ behavior. (altruism)
35. He claimed the police had used _____, threats, and promises to obtain the statement illegally. (coerce)
36. The word "professional" has _____ of skill and excellence. (connote)
37. She realised the _____ of working remotely soon faded after one month, revealing serious issues with motivation. (novel)
38. Thanks to an _____ record, the lawyer was trusted with several highprofile- cases. (blemish)
39. Her _____ dedication to mentoring younger colleagues significantly improved staff retention. (commend)
40. To write a strong research paper, you must cite _____ sources rather than personal blogs. (credit)
41. She raised her chin in a gesture of _____ as they read the verdict. (defy)
42. The journalist was accused of distortion after _____ key facts in the article. (distort)
43. When I was young and _____ I believed it was possible to change the world. (ideal)
44. The council's sudden tax _____ angered residents who had not been consulted beforehand. (impose)
45. Despite his _____ for mercy, the judge handed down the maximum possible sentence. (plead)
46. The country's economic crisis had an _____ effect on world markets. (settle)
47. Her performance was so _____ that the audience remained silent for several seconds before applauding. (transcend)
48. He is accused of _____ money from the company's pension fund. (appropriate)
49. I was under the _____ that the course was for complete beginners. Sadly, it turned out to be for people who have had at least 5 years of experience. (apprehend)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

50. The shelf contained a fascinating _____ collection of travel guides, cookbooks, and old science journals. (miscellany)
51. The initial blood tests were _____, so the doctor ordered a second round of screening. (conclusion)
52. In therapy, she began to _____ the beliefs that limited her professional confidence. (construct)
53. New students often feel _____ during their first week on a large university campus. (orient)
54. His decision to invest heavily in one risky project showed remarkable _____ for an experienced manager. (prudent)
55. A high-fat diet _____ with a greater risk of heart disease. (relate)
56. The statistics clearly _____ the scale of the problem and need to be corrected. (represent)
57. Several _____ organizations had coordinated efforts to help the poor in the central region of Vietnam after that devastating flood. (government)
58. Because the material is highly _____, workers must store it away from any heat source. (combust)
59. Yoga is said to restore one's inner _____. (equal)
60. From the summit, every village looked _____, making it hard to choose the quickest route. (distance)
61. These attitudes are deeply _____ in their society (bed)
62. Their enthusiasm for change was _____, even when senior leaders resisted new ideas. (repress)
63. The gossip started as casual _____ but soon escalated into a fullblown- office conflict. (back)
64. The contract is _____, so applicants must accept the terms exactly as written. (negotiate)
65. The artist became known for _____ designs that other fashion houses quickly copied. (trend)
66. She walked into the room wearing a silk dress and looking _____ gorgeous. (dead)
67. The baby has such an _____ face when she's sleeping, but she's a handful when she's awake! (angel)
68. Once the parts are _____, the structure stands firm. (lock)
69. Years of strict training had left the habit _____ in him, impossible to break overnight. (grained)
70. Without accurate records, some historical artifacts would be _____ once removed from their original sites. (retrieve)
71. The constant noise in the openplan- office was truly _____ during tight deadlines. (nerve)
72. She is _____ retiring next year, but she hasn't made an official announcement yet. (suppose)
73. The repair shop tried to _____ tourists but offered a fair rate to locals. (charge)
74. After the new tax, airlines began to _____ customers for nearly every extra service. (charge)
75. She grabbed a _____ of brochures, determined to compare every available course. (fist)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

76. The investigation will _____ several unethical practices that were hidden for years. (veil)
77. His accent was _____ British. (mistake)
78. She is a _____ employee who never misses a deadline and always double-checks her reports for accuracy. (conscience)
79. As a genuine _____, he upgrades his smartphone the moment a new model is released. (technology)
80. The GPS gave directions in a flat, robotic _____. (monotonously)

LIVEWORKSHEETS