

From Reading to Writing 3

Chapter 6. Artists as Scientists and Entrepreneurs

Part I. Multiple Choice

1. An entrepreneur is:
 - a) Someone who studies history
 - b) Someone who starts and runs a business
 - c) Someone who teaches at a university
 - d) Someone who works in government
2. Entrepreneurship refers to:
 - a) The study of economics
 - b) The ability to speak multiple languages
 - c) The act of designing clothes
 - d) The process of starting and managing businesses
3. Designers are people who:
 - a) Create plans, styles, or products
 - b) Build houses
 - c) Repair machines
 - d) Sell goods in a store
4. A technique is:
 - a) A tool used in construction
 - b) A type of machine
 - c) A method or way of doing something
 - d) A business contract
5. The foreign students incorporated their culture in their dance performance, meaning:
 - a) They included, blended, or combined elements of their own culture in the dance
 - b) They made a company
 - c) They danced on a stage
 - d) They performed live in the concert
6. The new software enabled students to:
 - a) Prevent learning
 - b) Make learning possible or easier
 - c) Stop using technology
 - d) Forget information
7. A diverse group means:
 - a) Everyone is the same
 - b) Only one type of person is included
 - c) People or things are varied and different
 - d) It is very expensive
8. The scientist experimented with chemicals to:
 - a) Test new ideas
 - b) Clean the lab
 - c) Write a report
 - d) Sell products

9. The flag represents the nation, meaning:
- a) It hides the nation
 - b) It sells the nation
 - c) It replaces the nation
 - d) It stands for or symbolizes the nation

10. An extraordinary event is:
- a) Very ordinary
 - b) Common and usual
 - c) Remarkable and exceptional
 - d) Boring and unimportant

Part II. Fill-in-the-Blanks Quiz

affordable	extraordinary	fiberglass
consumer	distribute	airy
at heart	manufacture	mastered aeronautics

1. After years of practice, she finally _____ the piano and could play beautifully.
2. He is a teacher _____, even though he now works in business.
3. I'm looking for an _____ gift for my friend. I'm still a student that's why I can't buy expensive presents yet.
4. The company will _____ free samples to customers at the mall.
5. The apartment was bright and _____, with large windows and open space.
6. Factories _____ cars, electronics, and other goods for the market.
7. The boat was made of _____, a strong and lightweight material.
8. The _____ bought the product after reading good reviews online.
9. _____ is the science of designing and building aircraft.
10. Her _____ dish impressed her friends. She combined French cuisine and her grandmother's traditional cooking technique to create a delicious meal.

