

Exercise 1: Match

Nervous	You have to give a speech in front of 200 people. Your hands are shaking and your heart is beating fast.
Amazed	You look out the train window and see a giant, glowing castle made of ice. You can't believe how beautiful it is!
Jealous	Your best friend just won a brand new iPhone 15, but you are still using a broken phone from 5 years ago.
Disappointed	You traveled 10 hours to see the Eiffel Tower, but when you got there, it was covered in fog and you saw nothing.
Frightened	The train stops in a dark tunnel. The lights go out, and you hear a strange, heavy breathing right behind your ear.

Exercise 2: Fill in the blank collocation

1. Don't (make / get) jealous just because your brother won a new bike!
2. The long, boring story (made/ felt) all the students sleepy and annoyed.
3. I always (look / get) a bit nervous before I have to speak in front of the class.
4. Watching that horror film alone at night (made / got) me absolutely terrified.
5. When I realized I had no money in my wallet, I (got / made) extremely embarrassed.
6. Seeing the beautiful sunset over the mountains (felt / made) us feel very calm and peaceful.

Exercise 3: match the emotions (Column A) to the reasons (some main details from a fairy tale) (column B). Then work in group of 4 to retell the story by using the given structure and your own ideas.

A	B
1. Frightened	A. ...because the giant had discovered the boy hiding in the kitchen.
2. Curious	B. ...because the woodcutter had lost his golden axe in the deep river.
3. Relieved	C. ...because she had found a mysterious door at the end of the hallway.
4. Miserable	D. ...because the hunter had arrived just before the wolf attacked.

A	B
Someone was/ were	Because

Exercise 4: Choose one of these 4 fairy tale below. Retell the stories including at least three feeling words and using 3 past tenses.

You should say:

Where and when the story was happening

What the main character was doing at the start of the story

What the main problem was and how the characters reacted

How the story finished and the lesson learned

And explain The “Why” behind the feelings

