

Text B

You are going to hear a man called Jay Carter talking about his time in the Amazon rainforest.

Complete the following gaps. Use no more than three words for each gap.

Experience in the Brazilian rainforest

- Original plan: short trip to [- 1 -]
- Stayed longer because of fascination with the [- 2 -]
- Initial difficulty: lack of [- 3 -] in the forest
- First jaguar encounter made him feel [- 4 -] rather than scared
- Jaguar sightings are rare because they are [- 5 -]

1. [- 1 -]

2. [- 2 -]

3. [- 3 -]

Notes/Notas:

4. [- 4 -]

.....

5. [- 5 -]

.....

Choose the five true statements.

- A. The speaker felt obliged to eat the spider to avoid offending his hosts.
- B. The speaker travelled inland mainly to study the eating habits of forest people.
- C. Jaguars frequently attack humans living in forest areas.
- D. Forest people generally admire jaguars rather than fear them.
- E. Jaguars are increasingly approaching farms because cattle provide food.
- F. Landowners are legally forbidden from killing jaguars near their land.
- G. Jaguars often contract illnesses from domestic animals.
- H. Avoiding human areas is now easy for jaguars.
- I. Jaguars are no longer endangered because awareness has increased.
- J. The speaker now prefers giving talks to writing articles.

Notes/Notas: