

SYNONYMS. WAYS OF ...

1. Ways of Crying

Be in tears – бути в сльозах

- Meaning: To be crying.
- Example: She was in tears after hearing the bad news.
- Difference / Nuance: General description of someone who is crying; neutral, doesn't specify intensity.

Burst into tears – розплакатися

- Meaning: To suddenly begin to cry.
- Example: The child burst into tears when he lost his toy.
- Difference / Nuance: Sudden onset; unlike "weep," which can be slow and continuous.

Cry your eyes out – виплакати всі очі, гірко ридати

- Meaning: To cry a lot or for a long time, usually because of extreme sadness.
- Example: She cried her eyes out after the breakup.
- Difference / Nuance: Emphasizes intensity and duration; more emotional than "be in tears."

Cry – плакати

- Meaning: To produce tears due to sadness, hurt, or sometimes extreme happiness.
- Example: Babies cry when they are hungry.
- Difference / Nuance: The most general term; neutral in tone, can describe any type of crying.

Moan – стогнати; оплакувати, скаржитися

- Meaning: To make a low sound expressing pain, discomfort, or unhappiness.
- Example: He moaned as he realized the mistake.
- Difference / Nuance: Focuses on vocal sound rather than tears; often low, continuous, and indicative of discomfort.

Sob – ридати, всхлипувати

- Meaning: To cry noisily with sudden, sharp breaths.
- Example: She sobbed at the funeral.
- Difference / Nuance: Conveys audible, emotional crying; unlike "weep," which is quieter.

Wail – голосити, волати

- Meaning: To cry loudly with high-pitched, prolonged sound.
- Example: The baby wailed all night.
- Difference / Nuance: Intense and prolonged crying, often loud; unlike "sob," it emphasizes volume and sound.

Weep – (literary/formal) тужити, ридати, плакати

- Meaning: To cry quietly for a long time.
- Example: She wept over the sad news in private.
- Difference / Nuance: Quiet, controlled, and often prolonged; more literary or formal than "cry."

Whimper – скиглити, нити (тихо)

- Meaning: To cry softly with low, weak sounds, often from fear, pain, or distress.

- Example: The puppy whimpered when left alone.
- Difference / Nuance: Gentle, weak, and pitiful; unlike “sob” or “wail,” it is quiet and vulnerable.

Quick memory tip

- Be in tears = already crying (state, not action)
- Burst into tears = start crying suddenly
- Cry your eyes out = cry a lot, for a long time
- Cry = general word for producing tears
- Moan = complain or cry in pain (sound, not tears)
- Sob = cry loudly with broken breathing
- Wail = very loud, long crying
- Weep = quiet, controlled, literary crying
- Whimper = weak, soft crying from fear or pain

2. Ways of Drinking / Eating

Bite – кусати, надкушувати, куштувати, пробувати

- Meaning: To use the teeth to cut into something.
- Example: She bit into the juicy apple.
- Difference / Nuance: Focuses on the action of taking a piece with your teeth; neutral about speed or sound.

Chew – жувати, пережовувати

- Meaning: To bite and work food in the mouth with the teeth, usually to make it easier to swallow.
- Example: He chewed his food slowly.
- Difference / Nuance: Emphasizes the process of grinding food, not just taking a piece; longer action than “bite.”

Crunch – гризти з хрумкотом; хрумтіти на зубах

- Meaning: To crush a hard or brittle food with teeth, making a loud but muffled grinding sound.
- Example: She crunched on the carrot.
- Difference / Nuance: Highlights the sound made when eating hard food; implies crispiness.

Drain – випивати до дна

- Meaning: To remove the liquid from food or drink, or to drink it all.
- Example: He drained his glass of water.
- Difference / Nuance: Focus on finishing a liquid completely; different from “gulp” which emphasizes speed.

Draught – ковток; доза (рідких ліків)

- Meaning: A quantity of liquid taken in a single swallow.
- Example: She took a draught of the medicine.
- Difference / Nuance: Formal or specific; usually for medicine or small measured amounts.

Eat – їсти, поїдати; харчуватися

- Meaning: To put food into the mouth, chew, and swallow.
- Example: He eats breakfast every morning.

- Difference / Nuance: General, neutral term; does not imply manner, speed, or sound.

Gobble – їсти швидко, жадібно, шумно

- Meaning: To eat hurriedly and noisily.
- Example: The kids gobbled up the cake.
- Difference / Nuance: Implies speed and eagerness; often careless or messy.

Gulp – ковтати жадібно або поспішно

- Meaning: To swallow food or drink quickly, often in large mouthfuls.
- Example: He gulped down his coffee.
- Difference / Nuance: Focus on quick swallowing; louder than “sip” or “drink quietly.”

Lick – лизати, облизувати

- Meaning: To pass the tongue over something to taste, moisten, or clean it.
- Example: The child licked the ice cream cone.
- Difference / Nuance: Involves the tongue only; usually small amounts, not for chewing.

Munch – жувати (беззубим ротом), чавкати

- Meaning: To eat steadily and often audibly.
- Example: He munched on some chips while watching TV.
- Difference / Nuance: Implies chewing repeatedly, often with a sound; slower than “gobble.”

Nibble – покусувати, їсти ліниво, без апетиту

- Meaning: To take small bites.
- Example: She nibbled at her sandwich.
- Difference / Nuance: Small, careful bites; can imply lack of hunger or delicacy.

Sip – пити маленькими ковтками

- Meaning: To drink by taking small mouthfuls.
- Example: He sipped his tea slowly.
- Difference / Nuance: Gentle, controlled drinking; opposite of “gulp” or “swig.”

Slurp – сьорбати

- Meaning: To drink or eat with a loud sucking noise.
- Example: He slurped his noodles.
- Difference / Nuance: Noisy; often informal or considered impolite.

Suck – ссати, смоктати, висмоктувати

- Meaning: To draw fluid into the mouth by suction.
- Example: The baby sucked on the bottle.
- Difference / Nuance: Emphasizes the act of suction; different from chewing or swallowing.

Swallow – ковтати, проковтнути

- Meaning: To cause food or drink to pass down the throat.
- Example: She swallowed the pill with water.
- Difference / Nuance: Neutral; focuses on passing food/drink from mouth to stomach.

Swig – великий ковток (спиртного), потягувати

- Meaning: To drink in large draughts.
- Example: He swigged the beer straight from the bottle.
- Difference / Nuance: Emphasizes quantity and speed; often informal, associated with alcohol.

Ways of Drinking

- Drink = general word for taking liquid
- Sip = drink in small amounts
- Take a sip = one small mouthful
- Gulp = drink quickly in large amounts
- Swallow = move liquid down the throat
- Chug = drink very fast, usually all at once
- Slurp = drink noisily (often soup/noodles)
- Suck = drink by pulling liquid (straw, baby)
- Nurse (a drink) = drink very slowly over time
- Down (a drink) = finish a drink completely

Ways of Eating

- Eat = general word for consuming food
- Have a meal = eat breakfast / lunch / dinner
- Bite = use teeth once
- Chew = break food in the mouth
- Swallow = move food down the throat
- Nibble = eat very small pieces
- Pick at food = eat without appetite
- Gobble (up) = eat very fast and eagerly
- Munch = eat noisily, steadily (often snacks)
- Devour = eat everything quickly, with great hunger
- Stuff yourself = eat too much
- Snack = eat a small amount between meals

3. Ways of Laughing

Beam – сяяти, посміхатися променистою посмішкою

- Meaning: To have a big, happy, radiant smile on your face.
- Example: She beamed when she received the good news.
- Difference / Nuance: Focuses on joy or pride expressed through a bright smile rather than sound.

Cackle – реготати

- Meaning: To laugh in a loud, unpleasant, or harsh way, usually high-pitched.
- Example: The witch cackled as she stirred the potion.
- Difference / Nuance: Often negative or mocking; unlike “giggle,” which is light and silly.

Chuckle – посміюватися тихо

- Meaning: To laugh quietly to oneself, often because of amusement.
- Example: He chuckled at the clever joke.
- Difference / Nuance: Soft, private, or gentle laughter; unlike “guffaw,” which is loud and boisterous.

Giggle – хихикати

- Meaning: To laugh in a silly, often high-pitched way, usually due to amusement, embarrassment, or nervousness.
- Example: The children giggled at the funny picture.
- Difference / Nuance: Light and often involuntary; unlike “chuckle,” it is more silly and often emotional.

Grin – широко посміхатися; скалити зуби

- Meaning: To smile broadly, often showing teeth.
- Example: He grinned from ear to ear when he saw the gift.
- Difference / Nuance: Focus on wide smile; can show happiness, mischief, or pride; unlike “beam,” it may not convey radiance or joy as strongly.

Guffaw – грубо реготати

- Meaning: To laugh loudly and coarsely.
- Example: He guffawed at the comedian’s rude joke.
- Difference / Nuance: Boisterous, sometimes crude; unlike “roar,” which can be emotional, “guffaw” implies roughness.

Roar – голосно реготати

- Meaning: To laugh very loudly, often uncontrollably.
- Example: The audience roared with laughter.
- Difference / Nuance: Intense, public laughter; unlike “guffaw,” can be prolonged and involve groups.

Simper – манірно, самовдоволено і дурнувато посміхатися

- Meaning: To smile in a silly, self-conscious, or affected way.
- Example: She simpered nervously during the interview.
- Difference / Nuance: Often negative or insincere; unlike “smile,” it shows artificiality or embarrassment.

Smile – посміхатися

- Meaning: To have a facial expression showing pleasure, friendliness, or amusement.
- Example: He smiled at her as she walked in.
- Difference / Nuance: Neutral and general; unlike “beam” or “grin,” it may be subtle and less expressive.

Smirk – самовдоволено посміхатися

- Meaning: To smile in a self-satisfied or smug way, sometimes showing superiority or secret knowledge.
- Example: He smirked when he solved the puzzle before anyone else.
- Difference / Nuance: Often negative or arrogant; unlike “grin,” it conveys self-satisfaction rather than joy.

Snigger / Snicker – посміюватися тихо, зневажливо

- Meaning: To laugh quietly at something rude or at someone’s mistake.
- Example: The students snickered at their classmate’s blunder.
- Difference / Nuance: Secretive or mocking; unlike “giggle,” it often conveys ridicule rather than innocence.

Titter – нервово хихотіти

- Meaning: To laugh quietly, often in a nervous or embarrassed way.
- Example: She tittered when the teacher asked an awkward question.

- Difference / Nuance: Light, nervous laughter; unlike “giggle,” it is more restrained and uneasy.

Quick memory tip.

Ways of Smiling & Laughing

- Beam = radiant, happy smile
- Cackle = loud, harsh, unpleasant laugh (witch-like)
- Chuckle = quiet, private laugh
- Giggle = silly, high-pitched laugh (often children)
- Grin = very wide smile, teeth visible
- Guffaw = loud, rough, crude laugh
- Roar (with laughter) = extremely loud, uncontrollable laugh
- Simper = silly, fake, embarrassed smile
- Smile = general, neutral expression
- Smirk = self-satisfied, arrogant smile
- Snigger / Snicker = quiet, mocking laugh
- Titter = nervous, restrained little laugh

One-line memory trick

- Quiet → chuckle, titter
- Silly → giggle, simper
- Rude/Negative → cackle, snigger, smirk
- Very loud → guffaw, roar
- Smile only (no sound) → smile, grin, beam

4. Ways of looking

Blink – кліпати, моргати

- Meaning: To shut your eyes and quickly open them again.
- Example: He blinked several times in the bright sunlight.
- Difference / Nuance: A brief, automatic eye movement, unlike “wink,” which is intentional and communicative.

Frown – супити брови; насупитися

- Meaning: To bring your eyebrows together, showing annoyance, worry, or concentration.
- Example: She frowned at the confusing instructions.
- Difference / Nuance: Expresses emotion (displeasure, concern), unlike “glance,” which is just a look.

Gaze – пильно дивитися, вдивлятися; витріщатися

- Meaning: To look steadily at someone or something for a long time, often with interest or surprise.
- Example: He gazed at the painting for several minutes.
- Difference / Nuance: Focuses on prolonged attention or admiration, unlike “stare,” which can be rude or intense.

Glance – глянути побіжно; кинути оком

- Meaning: To look quickly at something.
- Example: She glanced at her watch during the meeting.
- Difference / Nuance: Quick, casual look; unlike “peek/peep,” it’s not secretive.

Glare – пильно або люто дивитися

- Meaning: To look at someone angrily.
- Example: He glared at the noisy students.
- Difference / Nuance: Shows anger or hostility, unlike “gaze,” which shows interest.

Glimpse – мигцем побачити

- Meaning: To see someone or something for a very short time, not clearly.
- Example: I caught a glimpse of her as she left the room.
- Difference / Nuance: Very brief or partial sight; unlike “peek,” it doesn’t imply intention to look secretly.

Look – подивитися

- Meaning: To direct your eyes in a particular direction.
- Example: Look at that beautiful sunset!
- Difference / Nuance: Most general term for sight; can be intentional or casual.

Note – помічати, брати до уваги

- Meaning: To observe or take notice of something important or interesting.
- Example: Note how the artist uses light in this painting.
- Difference / Nuance: Implies paying attention to detail, unlike “see,” which can be passive.

Notice – зауважувати, звертати увагу

- Meaning: To become aware of something.
- Example: I didn’t notice the sign.
- Difference / Nuance: Awareness without necessarily looking carefully; more general than “observe.”

Observe – спостерігати, стежити

- Meaning: To watch carefully to learn or understand something.
- Example: Scientists observed the behavior of the birds.
- Difference / Nuance: Careful and attentive watching; more analytical than “look” or “see.”

Peep – заглядати, підглядати

- Meaning: To look quickly and often secretly.
- Example: The children peeped through the keyhole.
- Difference / Nuance: Secretive or sneaky, unlike “glance,” which is casual.

Peer – вдивлятися

- Meaning: To look closely, often because it is difficult to see.
- Example: He peered through the fog to see the road.
- Difference / Nuance: Focuses on difficulty or effort to see clearly, unlike “peek,” which is quick.

See – бачити, розуміти

- Meaning: To perceive with the eyes; to understand.
- Example: I can see the mountains from here.
- Difference / Nuance: General term for sight and comprehension; unlike “look,” it may not involve active attention.

Stare – вдивлятися, витріщатися

- Meaning: To look at something for a long time, often rudely or with fixed attention.
- Example: Don’t stare at people like that.

- Difference / Nuance: Implies intensity or rudeness, unlike “gaze,” which is more neutral or admiring.

Survey – оглядати, переглядати

- Meaning: To look carefully at the whole of something to get a general impression.
- Example: She surveyed the room before speaking.
- Difference / Nuance: Comprehensive examination, unlike “glance,” which is quick.

View – оглядати, дивитися

- Meaning: To look at something carefully.
- Example: Tourists viewed the city from the hilltop.
- Difference / Nuance: Often more formal; implies considering or appreciating something.

Watch – дивитися, спостерігати

- Meaning: To look at something attentively over a period of time.
- Example: We watched the children play in the park.
- Difference / Nuance: Implies ongoing attention and interest, unlike “look,” which can be brief.

Wink – підморгувати

- Meaning: To close one eye briefly, usually as a signal of joke, secret, or affection.
- Example: He winked at me across the room.
- Difference / Nuance: Intentional and communicative; unlike “blink,” which is automatic.

Quick memory tip

Ways of Looking

- Blink = automatic eye movement (no message)
- Wink = one eye, intentional signal
- Look = general action of directing your eyes
- See = passive vision / understanding
- Glance = quick, casual look
- Glimpse = see briefly, not clearly
- Gaze = long, steady look (interest / admiration)
- Stare = long, fixed look (often rude)
- Glare = angry look
- Frown = eyebrows together (emotion, not eyes)
- Peek / Peep = quick, secret look
- Peer = look with effort (hard to see)
- Notice = become aware of something
- Note = notice something important
- Observe = watch carefully to understand
- Watch = look attentively over time
- Survey = look over everything (general impression)
- View = formal / appreciative looking

Ultra-fast memory groups

- Quick → glance, glimpse, peek
- Long → gaze, stare, watch
- Angry/Negative → glare, frown
- Careful/Analytical → observe, survey
- General → look, see

5. Ways of Screaming

Bellow – ричати, репетувати через злість

- Meaning: To shout angrily in a loud, deep voice.
- Example: The coach bellowed at the players for missing the goal.
- Difference / Nuance: Emphasizes deep, powerful voice with anger; more forceful than “shout.”

Cheer – підбадьорювати, схвально вигукувати

- Meaning: To shout for joy, in praise, or encouragement.
- Example: Fans cheered loudly when their team scored.
- Difference / Nuance: Positive emotion; unlike “bellow” or “scream,” it expresses support or happiness.

Holler – кричати, волати

- Meaning: To shout loudly.
- Example: She hollered across the street to get his attention.
- Difference / Nuance: Informal; often loud but not necessarily angry or fearful; similar to “yell.”

Raise your voice – підвищити голос

- Meaning: To speak louder, usually to show anger, urgency, or emphasis.
- Example: The teacher raised her voice to quiet the noisy classroom.
- Difference / Nuance: Focuses on increasing volume, not necessarily shouting continuously.

Roar – репетувати, волати

- Meaning: To utter a loud, deep, prolonged sound, typically from anger, pain, or excitement.
- Example: The crowd roared when the band appeared on stage.
- Difference / Nuance: Longer, sustained, and louder than “bellow”; can express both anger and excitement.

Scream – пронизливо кричати через страх або злість

- Meaning: To give a long, loud, piercing cry expressing extreme emotion or pain.
- Example: She screamed when she saw the spider.
- Difference / Nuance: High-pitched and intense; stronger than “shout” and often linked to fear or surprise.

Shout – кричати; голосно говорити

- Meaning: To utter a loud cry, typically expressing a strong emotion.
- Example: He shouted for help.
- Difference / Nuance: General term for loud vocal expression; neutral regarding emotion type.

Shriek – пронизливо кричати, репетувати

- Meaning: To utter a high-pitched piercing sound or words, especially from terror, pain, or excitement.
- Example: She shrieked in terror when the fireworks started.
- Difference / Nuance: More piercing and higher-pitched than “scream,” usually sharper and shorter.

Yell – кричати, волати, лементувати

- Meaning: To shout loudly, usually because of excitement, anger, or pain.
- Example: He yelled at the driver who cut him off.
- Difference / Nuance: Informal; similar to “holler,” but can imply more emotion (anger or urgency).

Ways of Screaming / Shouting

- Bellow = deep, angry, powerful shout
- Cheer = shout for joy or encouragement
- Holler = loud, informal shout (attention-getting)
- Raise your voice = speak louder (anger / emphasis)
- Roar = very loud, long, deep shout (anger or excitement)
- Scream = high-pitched, intense cry (fear or anger)
- Shout = general loud cry (any strong emotion)
- Shriek = piercing, sharp, high-pitched cry (terror or excitement)
- Yell = loud shout, emotional (anger, pain, or excitement)

Memory grouping trick

- Angry / deep → bellow, roar
- Joy / support → cheer
- High-pitched / piercing → scream, shriek
- General loudness → shout, yell, holler
- Volume control → raise your voice

6. Ways of Speaking

Blurt out – бовкнути, ляпнути

- Meaning: To say something suddenly, often without thinking, after trying to keep it secret.
- Example: He blurted out the answer before anyone else had a chance.
- Difference / Nuance: Emphasizes lack of control or impulse, unlike “say,” which is neutral.

Burst out – раптово сказати

- Meaning: To say something suddenly and loudly, usually due to strong emotion.
- Example: She burst out laughing at the joke.
- Difference / Nuance: Focuses on suddenness and intensity, often emotional, unlike “say,” which is neutral.

Call – кликати, покликати

- Meaning: To speak loudly to attract someone’s attention.
- Example: He called her name across the street.

- Difference / Nuance: Intentional to gain attention, unlike “shout,” which may express anger or excitement.

Chat – базікати, невимушено

- Meaning: To talk in an informal and friendly way.
- Example: We chatted about our weekend plans.
- Difference / Nuance: Relaxed, social conversation; unlike “debate,” which is formal and argumentative.

Cite / Quote – цитувати

- Meaning: To mention someone else’s words as evidence or example.
- Example: She cited Shakespeare in her essay.
- Difference / Nuance: Formal and evidence-based, unlike “say,” which is general.

Communicate – спілкуватися

- Meaning: To share or exchange information, ideas, or news.
- Example: We communicate via email every day.
- Difference / Nuance: Neutral and broad, includes all forms of conveying information, unlike “chat,” which is casual.

Consult – консультувати

- Meaning: To discuss something with someone to get advice or permission.
- Example: I consulted my teacher about the project.
- Difference / Nuance: Formal, involves seeking guidance, unlike “talk,” which is informal.

Debate – дискутувати

- Meaning: To discuss a topic, often formally, presenting opposing arguments.
- Example: They debated the pros and cons of the plan.
- Difference / Nuance: Formal, argumentative discussion; unlike “discuss,” which can be informal and cooperative.

Discuss – обговорювати

- Meaning: To talk about something to share ideas or reach a decision.
- Example: We discussed our holiday plans.
- Difference / Nuance: Neutral formal/informal conversation; unlike “debate,” it doesn’t imply opposition.

Exclaim – вигукувати

- Meaning: To cry out suddenly in surprise, pain, or strong emotion.
- Example: “What a beautiful view!” she exclaimed.
- Difference / Nuance: Sudden and emotional, unlike “say,” which is neutral.

Gossip – пліткувати

- Meaning: To talk about others’ private matters, often rumors.
- Example: They spent the afternoon gossiping about celebrities.
- Difference / Nuance: Informal and often negative; unlike “chat,” which is general conversation.

Mention – згадувати

- Meaning: To briefly refer to something in conversation.
- Example: He mentioned he would be late.
- Difference / Nuance: Short, incidental remark; unlike “say,” which can be more detailed.

Mumble – бурмотати

- Meaning: To speak quietly and unclearly, making it hard to hear.
- Example: He mumbled an apology.
- Difference / Nuance: Low, unclear speech, often accidental; unlike “whisper,” which is intentional quiet speech.

Murmur – говорити тихо, шепотіти

- Meaning: To speak softly or indistinctly.
- Example: She murmured a reply under her breath.
- Difference / Nuance: Gentle and quiet, can be intentional or secretive, unlike “mumble,” which is usually unintentional.

Mutter – бурмотати, мимрити

- Meaning: To speak quietly, often in dissatisfaction or irritation.
- Example: He muttered complaints about the service.
- Difference / Nuance: Implies annoyance; unlike “murmur,” it often shows discontent.

Pronounce – вимовляти

- Meaning: To make the sounds of a word correctly.
- Example: She pronounced his name perfectly.
- Difference / Nuance: Focus on correct articulation, unlike “say,” which is general.

Say – казати

- Meaning: To speak words, often reporting someone else’s words.
- Example: She said, “I’ll be late.”
- Difference / Nuance: Neutral and general; unlike “exclaim,” it may lack emotion.

Sermon – проповідь

- Meaning: To give a talk on a moral or religious subject.
- Example: The priest delivered a sermon on kindness.
- Difference / Nuance: Formal, moral or religious focus; unlike “talk,” which is neutral.

Speak – говорити, розмовляти

- Meaning: To talk formally or have a conversation.
- Example: She spoke to the manager about her concerns.
- Difference / Nuance: More formal than “talk”; neutral in tone.

Talk – розмовляти, бесідувати

- Meaning: To speak in order to share ideas or information.
- Example: We talked about our weekend plans.
- Difference / Nuance: Neutral, can be casual or formal; unlike “chat,” it may not imply friendliness.

Tell – розповідати

- Meaning: To give information or facts to someone.
- Example: He told me the news.
- Difference / Nuance: Focuses on giving information; unlike “say,” which can be just words.

Utter – висловлюватися

- Meaning: To express something with words; can emphasize completeness or solemnity.
- Example: He didn’t utter a word during the meeting.

- Difference / Nuance: Formal or emphatic; unlike “say,” emphasizes the act of speaking.

Whisper – шептати, говорити пошепки

- Meaning: To speak very quietly so others cannot hear.
- Example: She whispered the secret to her friend.
- Difference / Nuance: Intentional quiet speech; unlike “murmur,” which can be soft but not necessarily secretive.

Ways of Speaking

- Say = general, neutral speech
- Tell = give information to someone
- Speak = formal or general talking
- Talk = neutral, casual or formal conversation
- Chat = friendly, informal conversation
- Gossip = talk about others’ private matters (often negative)
- Mention = briefly refer to something
- Cite / Quote = repeat someone else’s words formally
- Exclaim = sudden, emotional shout
- Blurt out = say suddenly without thinking
- Burst out = say suddenly, loudly, with emotion
- Call = speak loudly to get attention
- Raise your voice = speak louder for emphasis or anger
- Mumble = speak quietly, unclearly (often accidental)
- Mutter = quiet speech showing irritation
- Murmur = soft, gentle speech (can be secretive)
- Whisper = quiet, secret speech
- Pronounce = say words correctly
- Utter = formal / emphatic speech
- Sermon = moral or religious speech

Memory grouping trick

- Quiet / secret → whisper, murmur, mumble, mutter
- Sudden / emotional → blurt out, burst out, exclaim
- Formal / careful → speak, cite/quote, utter, pronounce, sermon
- Friendly / casual → talk, chat
- General / neutral → say, tell, call, raise your voice
- Negative / gossipy → gossip

7. Ways of Walking

Blunder – йти наосліп, рухатися навропа, непевно

- Meaning: To move in a clumsy and careless way.
- Example: He blundered through the dark room.
- Difference / Nuance: Focuses on awkwardness and uncertainty; often accidental.

Crawl – плазувати, повзти

- Meaning: To move forward on hands and knees.
- Example: The baby crawled across the floor.
- Difference / Nuance: Low to the ground; slow; usually literal (not figurative).

Creep – підкрадатися

- Meaning: To move quietly and slowly, often to avoid being noticed.
- Example: She crept into the room without making a sound.
- Difference / Nuance: Emphasizes stealth; slower than walking.

Dash – кидатися, мчати, нестися

- Meaning: To run or go quickly and suddenly.
- Example: He dashed to catch the bus.
- Difference / Nuance: Sudden, fast movement; often urgent.

Falter – рухатися похитуючись, невпевнено

- Meaning: To move unsteadily or hesitantly.
- Example: She faltered along the icy path.
- Difference / Nuance: Focuses on weak, unsure steps; can imply fear or uncertainty.

Gad – вештатися, тинятися

- Meaning: To go from place to place in pursuit of pleasure.
- Example: They gadded about the city all afternoon.
- Difference / Nuance: Leisurely wandering; often aimless.

Limp – кульгати, накульгувати

- Meaning: To walk with difficulty, typically due to injury or pain.
- Example: He limped after twisting his ankle.
- Difference / Nuance: Injury-related; uneven steps.

Lurch – йти хитаючись, нетвердо

- Meaning: To make abrupt, unsteady, uncontrolled movements.
- Example: He lurched forward after the sudden stop.
- Difference / Nuance: Often caused by external forces; sudden swaying.

Meander – бродити без мети, вештатися

- Meaning: To wander at random.
- Example: We meandered through the old town streets.
- Difference / Nuance: Aimless walking; relaxed and slow.

Mosey – ушиватися, забиратися (геть); йти ліниво

- Meaning: To walk or move in a leisurely, unhurried way.
- Example: He moseyed down the sidewalk, enjoying the sun.
- Difference / Nuance: Leisurely, casual; often implies lack of urgency.

Pace – крокувати туди-сюди, нервово

- Meaning: To walk at a steady speed, often due to anxiety or impatience.
- Example: She paced the room while waiting for the news.
- Difference / Nuance: Repetitive; shows nervousness or thought.

Pad – тихо йти, брести

- Meaning: To walk quietly with soft steps.
- Example: The cat padded across the floor.
- Difference / Nuance: Silent, careful movement; soft sound.

Plod – плестися, йти втомлено

- Meaning: To walk slowly and heavily.

- Example: He plodded along the muddy road.
- Difference / Nuance: Slow, laborious; implies effort or tiredness.

Ramble – прогулюватися для задоволення

- Meaning: To walk for pleasure, especially in the countryside.
- Example: We rambled across the hills for hours.
- Difference / Nuance: Relaxed, enjoyable; recreational.

Range – блукати, мандрувати

- Meaning: To travel over a wide area.
- Example: Wolves ranged across the forest.
- Difference / Nuance: Suggests covering large distances, often over territory.

Reel – йти нерівною ногою, шпортатися

- Meaning: To stagger or lurch violently, often due to alcohol or dizziness.
- Example: He reeled from the punch.
- Difference / Nuance: Loss of balance; unsteady and uncontrolled.

Roam – мандрувати, бродити без мети

- Meaning: To wander without a specific purpose.
- Example: Tourists roamed the old streets.
- Difference / Nuance: Aimless; emphasizes freedom and exploration.

Saunter – прогулюватися неквапливо

- Meaning: To walk in a slow, relaxed, casual way.
- Example: They sauntered along the beach.
- Difference / Nuance: Leisurely, confident; unhurried.

Shuffle – шаркати, човгати

- Meaning: To walk by dragging the feet along the ground.
- Example: He shuffled into the room, tired and sleepy.
- Difference / Nuance: Slow, dragging steps; can show tiredness or laziness.

Stagger – йти похитуючись

- Meaning: To walk unsteadily, e.g., due to illness, alcohol, or exhaustion.
- Example: He staggered after too many drinks.
- Difference / Nuance: Stronger than “falter”; emphasizes instability.

Stalk – підкрадатися

- Meaning: To move silently or threateningly.
- Example: The cat stalked its prey.
- Difference / Nuance: Quiet and stealthy; often predatory.

Step – крокувати, ступати

- Meaning: To lift and put down your foot in walking.
- Example: He stepped carefully over the puddle.
- Difference / Nuance: Neutral; basic action of walking.

Stomp – тупотіти

- Meaning: To tread heavily and noisily, usually to show anger.
- Example: She stomped out of the room.
- Difference / Nuance: Heavy, loud; emotional expression.

Stray – заблукати, відбитися

- Meaning: To move away aimlessly from a group or path.
- Example: The dog strayed from the yard.