

- I. Read this opinion essay and choose the correct connector.

The Ideal Work Environment

1. _____, various elements need to be available for one to consider a working environment ideal for carrying out a job. 2. _____, the presence of these factors goes a long way to motivate a given employee to stay in that area, which could translate into high levels of performance on the members of the staff. 3. _____, one of the primary factors is the availability of the work equipment. Such material needs to be sufficient and in good condition. 4. _____, people who are in charge of documentation and data ought to have enough computing equipment that is operating well and fast (Quinlan et al. 64). 5. _____, another issue lies in the capability of management to respect employees' autonomy. 6. _____, this means that workers need to have the freedom to think on their own and come up with actions that could boost their capacity to produce on their mandate (Lent 8). 7. _____, an ideal workplace is one that has an enabling atmosphere regarding the general physical environment around which people works. 8. _____, the employers must ensure that the ventilation and lighting meet the required standards so that workers do not seem to struggle for clean air. 9. _____ to consider a workplace as an ideal environment, is that the management must reward good work in order to the personnel improves their laboring level and further work performance. 10. _____, all these factors make the stay of employees at a given workstation quite comfortable. Selina Kolls (Author), 2016, The Ideal Work Environment, Munich, GRIN Verlag, https://www.grin.com/document/341147	One last point What is more Also To summarize For example In other words As I see it Firstly For instance Secondly
---	--