

ARTICLES IN THE CITY. OUT-OF-CLASS CARD

1. Visitors can see ancient Egyptian mummies and the Rosetta Stone at ... British Museum in London.
2. ... Oxford University is one of the oldest and most prestigious universities in the world, where students study in historic colleges.
3. ... White House in Washington, D.C. is not only the president's home but also a powerful symbol of the United States government.
4. ... Piccadilly Circus in London is famous for its bright video displays and the statue of Eros, making it a busy meeting place.
5. ... State Theatre in Traverse City is a historic cinema at the heart of the city's film festival.
6. ... St. Peter's Square in Vatican City is where large crowds gather to see the Pope.
7. ... Parc Güell in Barcelona features the fantastical, colourful mosaic work of architect Antoni Gaudí.
8. ... National Theatre on London's South Bank stages a wide variety of classic and new plays.
9. ... Fifth Avenue in New York is renowned for its luxury shops like Tiffany & Co.
10. ... Eiffel Tower was originally built for a world's fair and is now Paris's most iconic landmark.
11. ... St. Paul's Cathedral in London is famous for its magnificent dome that offers panoramic city views.
12. ... Times Square is always buzzing with enormous digital billboards and crowds of people.
13. ... Broadway in New York is the famous street synonymous with world-class theatre and musicals.
14. ... Taj Mahal Palace is a historic luxury hotel in Mumbai overlooking the Arabian Sea.
15. ... Trafalgar Square in London is a popular meeting point with its lion statues and tall column.
16. ... Museum of Contemporary Art (MOCA) in Los Angeles focuses on art from 1940 to today.
17. ... Stanley Park in Vancouver offers a famous seawall path with views of the mountains and ocean.
18. ... Westminster Abbey in London is where the coronations of British monarchs have taken place for centuries.
19. ... Milan Cathedral (Duomo di Milano) in Italy is covered with thousands of intricate statues.

20. ... Gorky Park in Moscow is a modern urban park where people cycle, skate, and attend concerts.
21. ... University of Cambridge is famous for its historic colleges and groundbreaking scientists.
22. ... Ritz Paris is legendary for its incredibly elegant and traditional afternoon tea service.
23. ... Charles de Gaulle Airport is the main international airport for travellers arriving in Paris.
24. ... Beale Street in Memphis is known as the "Home of the Blues" for its live music history.
25. ... National Gallery of Victoria in Melbourne is Australia's oldest and most visited art museum.
26. ... Oxford Street in London becomes especially packed with shoppers during the Christmas season.
27. ... Royal Opera House in London's Covent Garden is a world-leading centre for ballet and opera.
28. ... Union Square in San Francisco is known for its farmers' market and central location.
29. ... Metropolitan Opera House (The Met) in New York is one of the world's most famous opera companies.
30. ... Bourbon Street in New Orleans is the vibrant heart of the city's nightlife and Mardi Gras celebrations.
31. ... Red Square in Moscow is a vast historic square framed by the Kremlin and St. Basil's Cathedral.
32. ... Kensington Gardens in London contains the Peter Pan statue and the Diana Memorial Playground.
33. ... Yale University in New Haven is famous for its grand library with a historic reading room.
34. ... St. Stephen's Cathedral (Stephansdom) is the most important religious building in Vienna, Austria.
35. ... University of Tokyo is widely considered the most prestigious university in Japan.
36. ... Tower Bridge is the famous London bridge that splits in the middle to let ships pass on the Thames.
37. ... Macy's in New York is a gigantic department store famous for its annual Thanksgiving Day Parade.
38. ... St. Basil's Cathedral on ... Moscow's Red Square is famous for its brightly coloured, onion-shaped domes.

39. ... Changi Airport in Singapore feels like a destination itself, with its stunning indoor gardens and waterfall.

40. ... Stanford University in California is known for its vast, beautiful campus and connections to Silicon Valley.