

LEMBAR KERJA PESERTA DIDIK (LKPD)

Name :

Class :

Group :

Member name:

1.

2.

3.

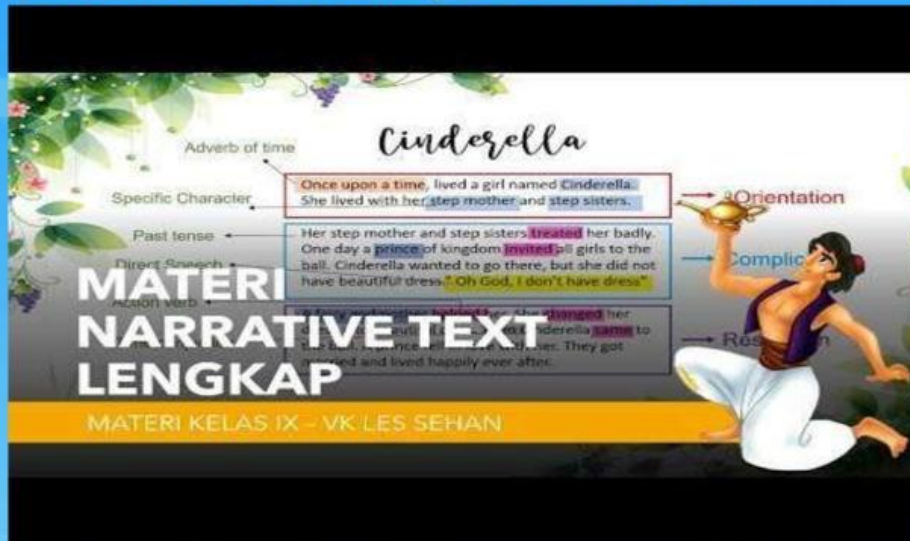

4.

Introductions for doing LKPD:

1. Write your name, class, and group members.
2. Watch the video and try to understand the material.
3. Discuss each question with your group members.
4. Submit assignment according to the schedule agreed upon between the teacher and students.

Lets learn about Narrative Text

1. Watch this video about material of narrative text.

LINK VIDEO:

(<https://youtu.be/vrQS03rVSnc?si=Bu3S9cUoYXBhI7Do>)

2. To get more understanding about Narrative text, read the material from this website (<https://wallstreetenglish.co.id/narrative-text/>)
3. After you have understood the material, let's do the exercises to comprehend your understanding about narrative text.

Activity 1: Problem Identification (Watch & Observe)

Instructions: Watch the video and discuss the following questions with your group:

LINK VIDIO : https://youtu.be/PXTEyw8kPVM?si=gr_2_WuewhdXU-7s

1. What was the story about?

.....

2. What makes the story interesting to you?

.....

3. Identify the characters and the setting (time & place) shown in the video!

.....

LET'S PRACTICE!

Activity2:DeepAnalysis

Reading Comprehension

MALIN KUNDANG

Read the text of the story entitled "Malin Kundang" carefully!

At one time, there is a fisherman family in a village on the coast of West Sumatera. The family has a son named Malin Kundang. Due to poor financial condition of the family, the father decided to make a living in the country by wading across a vast ocean. Malin's father never returned to his home so that his mother had to replace the position of Malin's father to work.

When he was adult Malin's decided wandered by a mercant ship to become rich. During his time on the ship, Malin Kundang learn a lot about seamanship on the crew who was experienced. Malin Kundang was lucky, in his jouney he could be a rich and married with a beautiful girl.

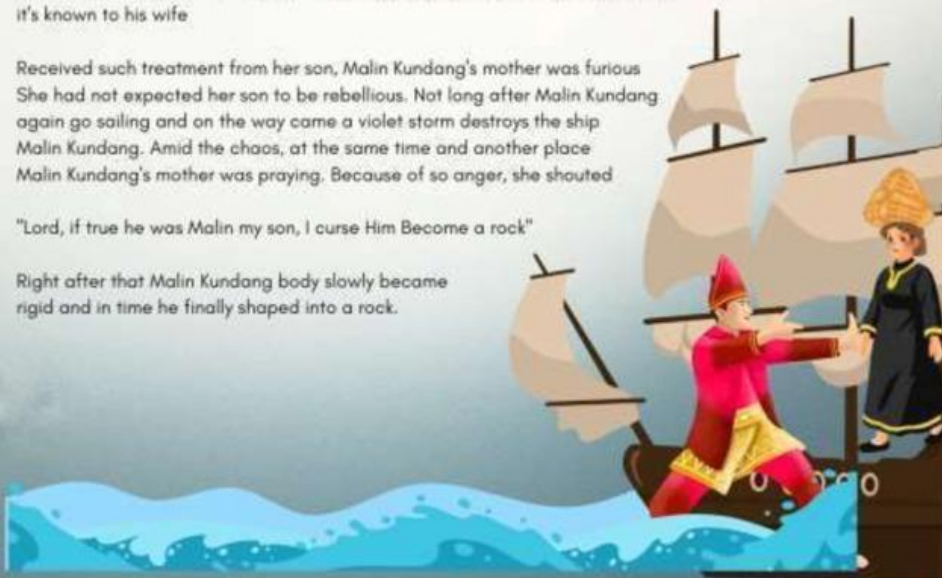

After long marriage, Malin and his wife set sail with the crew and stop at his village. Malin's Mother saw the ship in the dock. She saw two people standing on the deck of the ship. She believed that they were Malin Kundang and his wife.

Malin's mother was headed toward the ship. Once close enough, his mother saw scars on his arm so she believed he was the right person, the more convinced his mother that he was approached Malin Kundang. "Malin Kundang, my son, why did you go so long without sending message for me?". She said. But seeing a old woman with shabby and dirty hug him, Malin Kundang became angry even though he knew that the old woman was her mother, because she was embarrassed when it's known to his wife

Received such treatment from her son, Malin Kundang's mother was furious. She had not expected her son to be rebellious. Not long after Malin Kundang again go sailing and on the way came a violet storm destroys the ship Malin Kundang. Amid the chaos, at the same time and another place Malin Kundang's mother was praying. Because of so anger, she shouted

"Lord, if true he was Malin my son, I curse Him Become a rock"

Right after that Malin Kundang body slowly became rigid and in time he finally shaped into a rock.

Instructions: Based on the narrative text shared by the teacher, analyze the structure of the text in depth.

ORIENTATION	COMPLICATION	RESOLUTION

Activity Explicit & Implicit Connections

1. Information that is clearly written (Explicit):

.....

2. Information that is not directly written (Implicit):

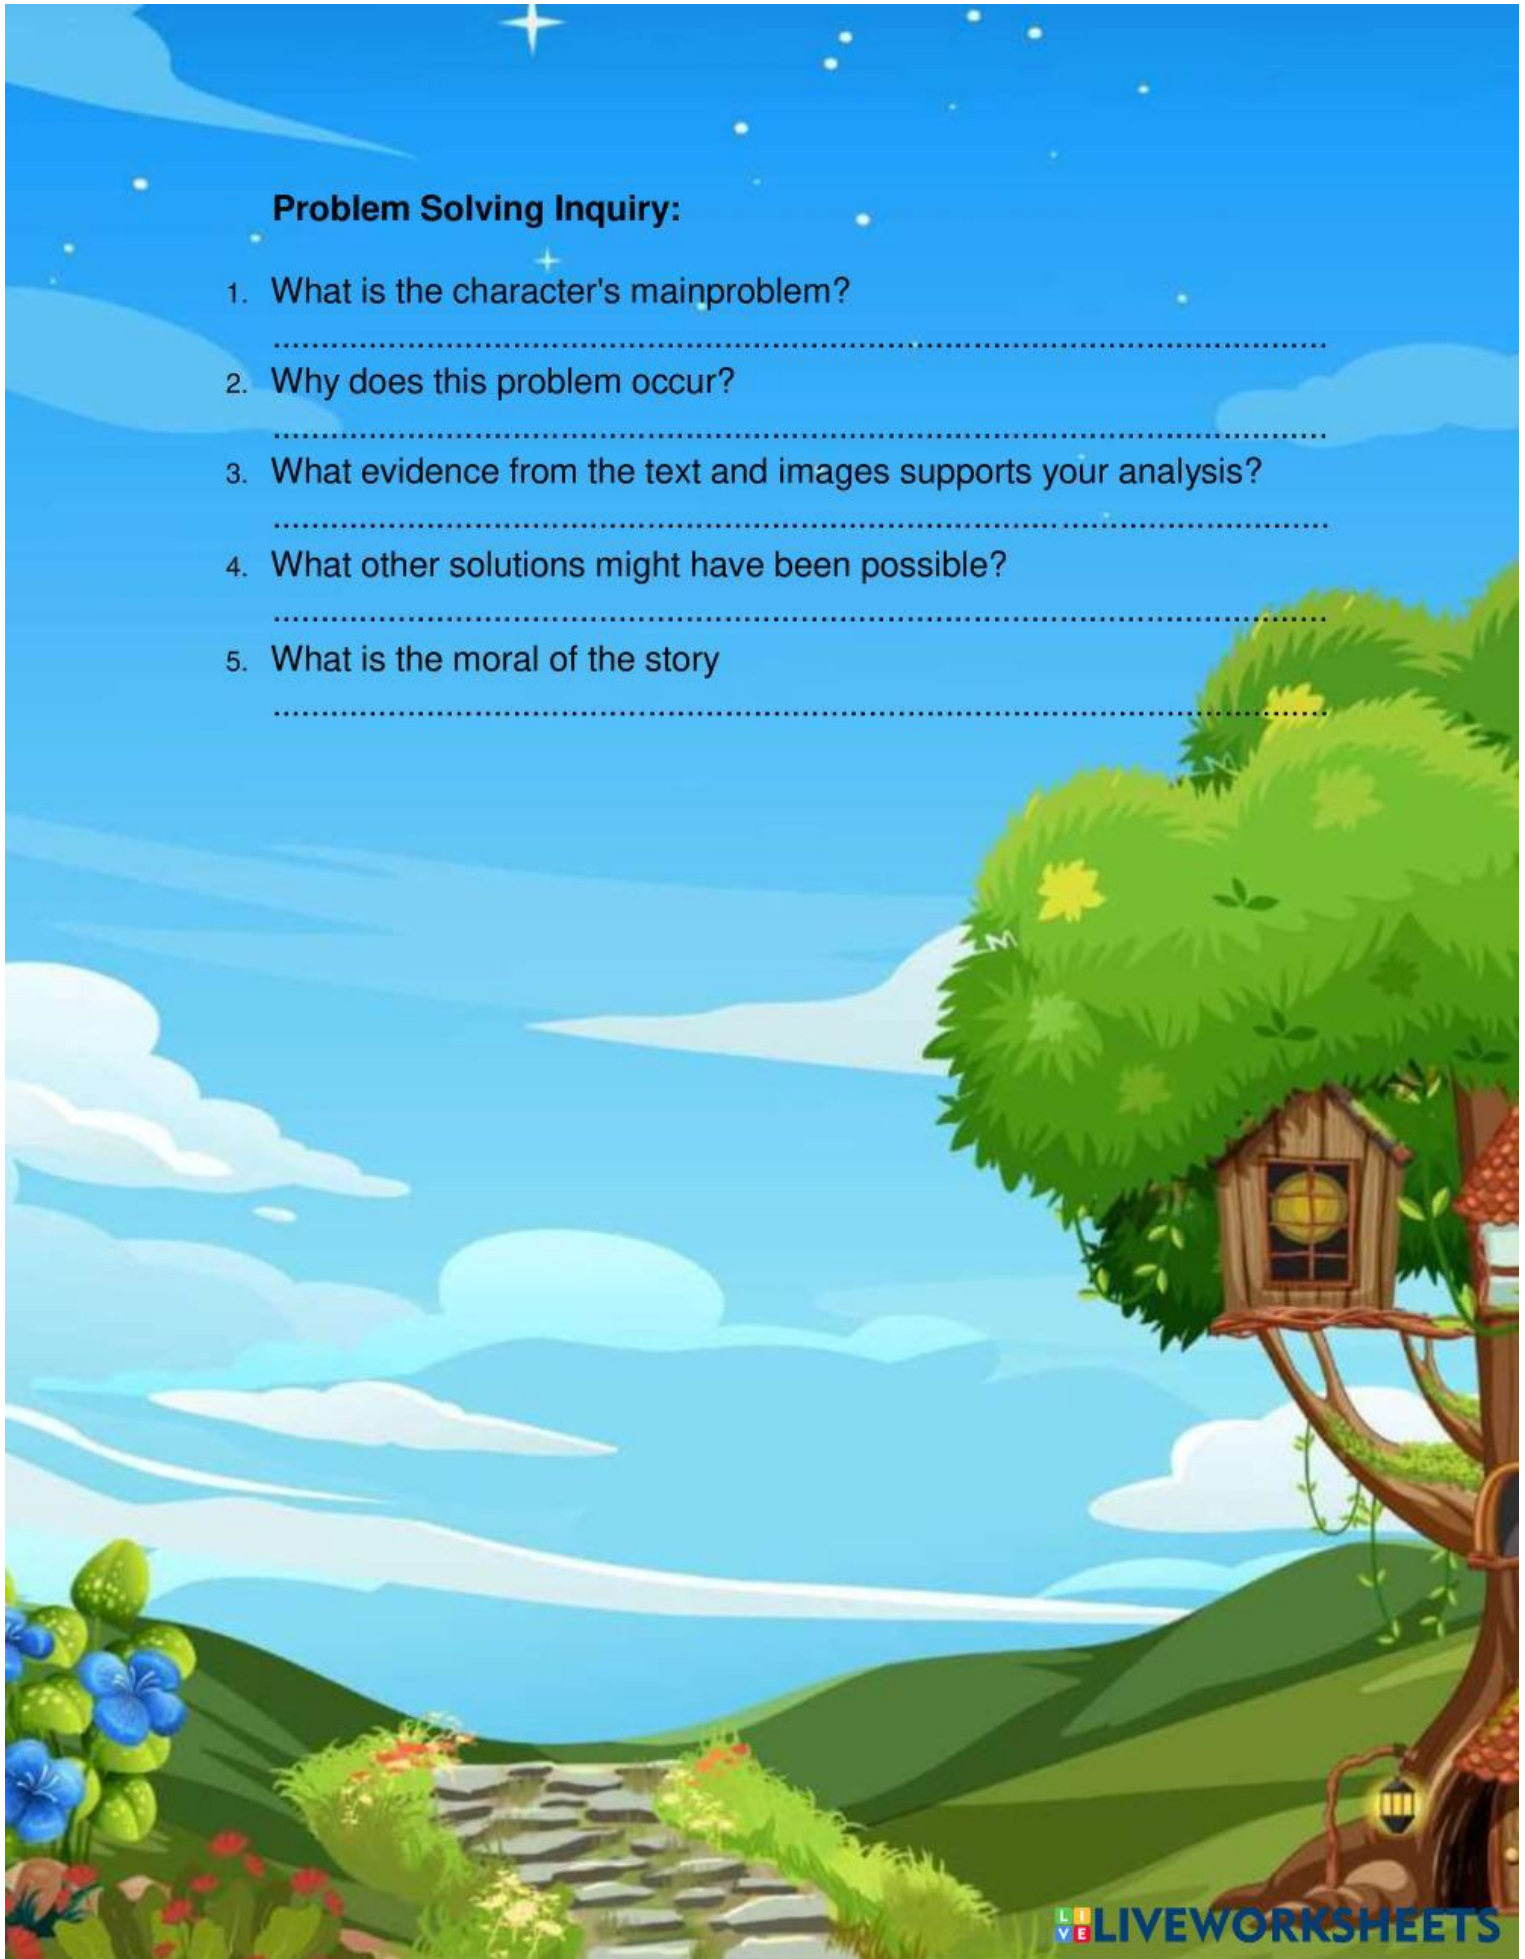

.....

3. What evidence from the story supports your answer?

.....

Problem Solving Inquiry:

1. What is the character's main problem?
.....
2. Why does this problem occur?
.....
3. What evidence from the text and images supports your analysis?
.....
4. What other solutions might have been possible?
.....
5. What is the moral of the story
.....

Instructions: Imagine that you are the character Malin in the story. Create a solution or a new ending (alternate ending) that is different from the original text.

Activity 4: Self Reflection

Instructions: Answer the following reflection questions honestly.

1. What was the most important thing you learned today?

.....

2. Which part of the narrative text material did you understand best?

.....

3. Which part still confuses you?

.....

4. Which part of the story did you find most interesting?

.....

5. What would you like to improve in future lessons?

.....