My first day at school

My name's Betty Stewart and I'm an English teacher. I was twenty-two years old when I got my first teaching job. I remember my first day very well!

The day didn't start well. I got up early and got dressed. Then I dropped my cereal all over my new skirt. I quickly put on clean clothes. I picked up my bag and went to the bus stop. I saw a lot of people waiting for the bus. I asked a woman, "Why are there so many people?" She said "There's a lot of traffic in the city centre and all the buses are late." So, I decided to walk to school.

I only had half an hour before my first lesson. I walked very quickly. After some time I could see the school at the end of the road. I felt very happy. Suddenly it started to rain. I ran fast but I was very wet when I arrived at school. When I got to my classroom I was five minutes late and I looked wet and horrible. At first, my new students looked surprised when they saw me. My dream day

My name's Lucy. My favourite singer is called Jimmy B. He's very famous and when he was younger he was a student at our school. Our music teacher knows Jimmy B and asked him to visit us. He said, "yes" and last Tuesday he came to our school.

I was very excited on that day and I couldn't wait to see Jimmy B. I went into the music room with all the other students and sat down. Jimmy B came into the room and talked to us about how he started singing and playing rock music. Then he sang his new song, 'Summer time'. It was great!

After Jimmy B left we went back to our classrooms for our afternoon lessons. While I was in my maths lesson, the music teacher came in and asked to see me and my friend Mary. My music teacher said that a journalist from our town's newspaper wanted to talk to some students about Jimmy B's visit to our school. We couldn't believe it! We went to the school office where we answered some questions and the journalist took a photo of us. Yesterday my mum showed me our town newspaper.
