B. Reading (7 Marks)

3. Read the following passage, then answer the questions: (7 Marks)

Imagine a world where you can understand movies without subtitles, order food confidently in a foreign country, and chat with people from different continents in their own tongue – this is the magic of learning a new language! In addition, have you ever imagined what it would be like to have a key that could open doors to entirely new worlds? Learning a new language is exactly that kind of key. It is far more than just memorizing vocabulary and grammar rules; it is a superpower that expands your mind and your future in incredible ways.

Learning a language also gives your brain a fantastic workout. Studies show bilingual individuals often have better memory, sharper focus, and stronger problem-solving skills. It literally helps your brain grow, developing new neural pathways, much like exercising a muscle.

Professionally, speaking another language is a huge advantage. Companies value employees who can bridge cultural gaps and communicate with international partners, opening up exciting job prospects. It also cultivates empathy and a deeper appreciation for other cultures, broadening your perspective and making you a more understanding global citizen.

To sum up, a new language isn't just a skill; it's a new way to see and live in the world, offering personal growth and practical benefits for a lifetime.
