

Fill in the correct word in each missing space. There are 25 words but you need only 20.

The Helping Hand

Last year, Sarah decided to volunteer for an international organization that helps people in need. Her (1) _____ was a small village struggling after a natural disaster. When she arrived, her first job was to (2) _____ with other volunteers to organize food and medical (3) _____. Sarah quickly realized that she needed to show (4) _____ toward the people who had lost everything.

One day, she met a young (5) _____ who had traveled many miles to find safety. He was in a difficult (6) _____ because he had no family left to help him. Sarah's team worked hard to find him a safe (7) _____ to sleep in. This experience was truly (8) _____ for Sarah; she had never seen such (9) _____ in people facing such hard times.

The team's main goal was to (10) _____ the spread of disease in the crowded camp. To do this, they had to (11) _____ new health and hygiene rules. Every volunteer felt a deep (12) _____ for the well-being of the community. Sarah was a very (13) _____ person, and her kind words had a positive (14) _____ on the spirits of the villagers.

During her time there, she would often (15) _____ difficult situations, but she remained calm. Her (16) _____ communication skills helped her (17) _____ the locals to start their own community garden. The final (18) _____ of the mission was very successful. Many families were (19) _____ from poverty and began a new life. Sarah realized that even one person can (20) _____ if they are willing to help.