Bright Fragments and Run-ons!

A fragment is a group of words without a subject or a predicate. A run-on sentence contains two or more sentences joined incorrectly.

Directions: Read each group of words below. Decide whether each one is a sentence, a fragment, or a run-on. Color the star in the correct column.

	Sentence	Fragment	Run-On
1. The presents are all wrapped.	☆	☆	☆
2. Presents, ribbons, and many bright bows.	☆	☆	☆
3. The Christmas tree was completely decorated.	☆	☆	☆
4. We wrapped presents we drank hot cocoa.	☆	☆	☆
5. Quickly put away the ribbon.	☆	☆	☆
6. We sang Christmas carols.	☆	☆	☆
7. Putting the star on top of the tall Christmas tree.	☆	☆	☆
8. The class made beautiful ornaments.	☆	☆	☆
9. We cut out reindeer then we colored them.	☆	☆	☆
10. Decorated with wreaths and bells.	☆	☆	☆
11. Mom baked cookies she brought them to my class.	☆	☆	☆
12. A large snowman with a carrot nose.	☆	☆	☆
13. I made a card for my grandmother.	☆	☆	☆

LIVEWORKSHEETS