Name: _____ Date: _____

Who or Whom Commonly Confused Pronouns Worksheet

A pronoun is a word that may take the place of one or more nouns.
Who is used when the pronoun is the subject of the interrogative sentence.
Whom is used when the pronoun is the object of the verb.

Directions: Read each sentence below. Circle the pronoun that best completes each sentence.

Example A: _____ is going to the game? (Who / Whom)
Answer: Who

1. _____ is watching the children? (Who / Whom)
2. _____ did they applaud for? (Who / Whom)
3. _____ left the party early? (Who / Whom)
4. _____ gave you the money for the movies? (Who / Whom)
5. _____ did the announcer call aloud? (Who / Whom)
6. _____ did the audience cheer? (Who / Whom)
7. _____ gave you the gold watch? (Who / Whom)
8. _____ did the man introduce? (Who / Whom)
9. _____ saw the big game? (Who / Whom)
10. _____ gave you the autograph? (Who / Whom)
11. _____ did they announce the winner? (Who / Whom)
12. _____ was the leader? (Who / Whom)
13. _____ gave you the tour? (Who / Whom)
14. _____ did the woman discuss? (Who / Whom)

LIVEWORKSHEETS