

They were — was it — were there — I bought — I got — you paid — you spent — didn't see — didn't have — did you buy — we really need — it has — they are —

Maggie: Kiley, what are all these things?

Kyle: I _____ a few things at the store.

Maggie: What are those?

Kyle: some CDs. I bought ten CD's; _____ on sale.

Maggie: _____ the new Evan Diamond CD?

Kyle: No, I _____ that one there. Look at this.

Maggie: What is it?

Kyle: I bought a new phone. It's really great. _____ an answering machine and it can identify the person who is calling you.

Maggie: _____ expensive?

Kyle: A little, but _____ an answering machine.

Maggie: That's true. What's in the box?

Kyle: An electronic agenda. It's great. I can keep names, phone number, dates and information here.

Maggie: _____ a lot of money today. Did you win the lottery or something?

Kyle: No, I didn't win the lottery, but _____ a bonus check today.

Maggie: I see. And did you get me anything?

