My hero

My hero is Laura Dekker. She isn't a famous actor or singer. She sailed around the world on her own when she was 14 years old.

Laura was born when her parents were traveling around the world on the ocean. When she was young, Laura spent most of her life on a boat. She lived in a house for only one year of her early life.

She often helped her dad build boats. She built her first simple boat when she was six. From the age of eight, she earned money doing jobs like cleaning and delivering newspapers to people's houses. Why? Because she wanted to buy her own boat!

When Laura was 11, she bought her first boat, and when she was 13, she sailed alone from the Netherlands to England. On that trip, she started to dream about sailing around the world. At first, the Dutch government stopped her, but finally, aged 14, she set off on her journey around the world. She finished when she was 16, the youngest person ever to do this.

Now Laura is a speaker and tells other people of the lessons she learned sailing on the ocean.
