

Today, Anna and her brother Ben are visiting a big aquarium with their dad.

Look! There is a _____ with bright colours.

Yes, and that _____ is jumping out of the water. It's very clever!

Over there, Anna sees a _____.

Wow! The shark has very _____ teeth. I don't like it.

Ben is looking at a _____.

This crab has two big _____. It is walking sideways.

Next to the crab, there is a _____ and a _____.

The clam is closed, but the lobster is moving.

Anna points to a tank with long animals.

That _____ is very long and thin.

Look at the _____!

Be careful! It can _____ people.

In the next tank, they see an _____ and a _____.

The octopus has eight _____.

Ben likes the small animals.

I like the _____ and the _____. They are very quiet.

Dad shows them a big animal.

That is a _____. It is very big and friendly.

They also see a _____ swimming near the bottom and a _____ with sharp points.

At the end, they see a _____, a _____, and a big _____ sleeping on a rock.

What a great day at the aquarium!