

- Adjectives ending in -ing are present participles. They are things that cause a feeling. Adjectives ending in -ed are past participles. They express the feeling.

Complete the sentences with the correct participle.

1. Why are we watching this boring movie? Aren't you bored with it? (boring / bored)
2. Kristen Stewart is an                      actress. I'm                      by her talent. (amazing / amazed)
3. Are you                      in computer-generated special effects? The latest 3-D movies are very                     . (interesting / interested)
4. I had an                      experience the last time I went to the movies. I started to cough, and I couldn't stop. I was really                     . (embarrassing / embarrassed)
5. Julie and I saw an Italian comedy yesterday. I found it                     , but Julie didn't seem very                      by it. (amusing / amused)
6. Oh, I'm really                      with Jeremy right now. He took me to the most                      movie last night. I wanted to walk out after half an hour, but he wouldn't leave! (disgusting / disgusted)
7. Do you think sci-fi movie directors make their films                      intentionally? I get so                      by the complicated storylines and weird characters. (confusing / confused)
8. I think that great books make great movies. If I find a book                     , I'm usually                      by the movie, too. (fascinating / fascinated)