

Ex.1. Choose the best adjective to these descriptions.

reclusive
inquisitive

impolite
miserable

reserved
confident

frazzled
delighted

astonished
assertive

1. I have awful manners and show no respect to other people. _____
2. I am very certain about my ability to do things well. _____
3. Pat was very pleased with her new house. _____
4. My child shows interest in the world around us and a desire to explore new ideas and experiences. _____
5. I was very surprised by the result. _____
6. I prefer living alone and avoiding going outside or talking to other people. _____
7. I don't often talk about or show my feelings or thoughts to others. _____
8. We all know that shattered feeling when you have too many tabs open in your brain.
_____
9. He communicates with others in a direct and honest manner. In addition, he isn't frightened to say what he wants or believes.
10. After the divorce she looks very unhappy.

Ex.2. Complete the sentences with the most suitable adjective from the box.

compulsive
reclusive

distracted
ashamed

dispirited
stubborn

determined
inquisitive

1. Even after failing the exam twice, Maria remained _____ and continued studying every night.
2. The child was extremely _____, asking questions about everything he saw in the museum.
3. After weeks of rejection letters, he felt _____ and began to doubt his abilities.
4. She has a _____ habit of checking her phone every few minutes, even during meetings.
5. He became more _____ after the accident, preferring to stay at home and avoid social events.
6. I felt deeply _____ when I realized I had blamed the wrong person.
7. The loud noise outside made it hard to concentrate, and I grew increasingly _____.
8. Despite all the advice he received, he remained _____ and refused to change his opinion.