Getting Around in the City

Tom: When I visit my grandma's house, we often travel by ferry. I like the ride because we can enjoy the view of the sea while crossing. The ferry is very safe, and I always wear my harness just in case. Sometimes, we also take a tuk-tuk to go around the city. It's fun, and you get to see many interesting places while riding in it.

Lucy: I live in a city with a lot of traffic. I often take the subway from the metro station to get to school because it's faster than taking the bus. I love the convenience of the subway, and I always make sure to follow the safety rules. Sometimes, I walk across the pedestrian crossing near the metro station to reach the park. It's the safest place to cross the road.

Jake: When I go on adventures with my family, we often visit natural parks. We once hiked up to a beautiful canyon in the mountains. The view was amazing! We also used a zipwire to get across a river, and I was really excited. The cable helped us get up the mountain, and we wore special gear to stay safe. I never forget to wear my reflective gear for visibility.
