

REVIEW EXERCISES (MODULES 1 – 3)

A. Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verbs in brackets. There is more than one possible answer.

1. The car's making a very strange noise. I think it _____ any minute! (break down)
2. This time next week, we _____ (walk) in the Pyrenees.
3. We're painting the house today, so we _____ (wear) old clothes.
4. When I got to the stadium, the game _____ (already / start).
5. The architect says that by the end of the year, this building _____ (collapse).
6. Mum always _____ (check out) all the hotels online before booking one.

B. Complete the teenagers' conversation with the correct form of the verbs below.

eat | give | already / organise | send | stay | not happen

A: How was your trip to London?

B: It didn't start off so well. When we arrived at the hotel, they _____ our rooms to someone else. Everyone knows that hotels often overbook.

A: That's worrying. This time next month, my family _____ at a hotel in London. Hopefully, the same thing _____ to us.

B: Relax, it's not all bad. By the time you arrive, the hotel _____ alternative accommodation for you if they have no more available rooms.

A: Oh, that's good to hear.

B: In our case, the hotel manager _____ us in a taxi to a five-star hotel, for the same price. Our rooms were awesome and breakfast was great. We didn't have lunch on the first day because we _____ so much at the hotel buffet that morning.

A: So it seems you were lucky, after all. I'm glad it all worked out in the end.

C. Complete the text with suitable relative pronouns. There may be more than one correct answer.

Mango Dress Fights Food Waste

Most dresses are made from materials such as cotton, polyester, silk and wool, but Australian teenager Jessica Collins created a dress. _____ was made out of mango seeds! The white and yellow dress, _____ weighed five kilos, looked stunning. It took her months to complete, while every room in the house was filled with mango seeds. Jessica lives in Queensland, Australia, _____ her family own a fruit farm. The end of the mango season is a time _____ farmers throw away overripe mangoes. The fruit is edible, but supermarket owners, _____ want every mango to look perfect, refuse to buy them. Jessica, _____ dress was made of seeds from 700 'unwanted' mangoes, wanted to raise awareness of food waste. It worked perfectly, and her story has now appeared on news websites around the world, including the BBC. It made news at home too because she wore the dress to a school dance, _____ her friends and classmates were amazed by her creation.

- D. Complete the blog post with the correct form of the verbs in brackets. When there is no verb, use a suitable relative pronoun. There may be more than one correct answer.

VALENCIA – HOME OF PAELLA!

This time next week, I _____ (visit) my friend Ximo, _____ family has a house in Valencia. I'm so excited – I _____ (look) forward to it for weeks. Valencia is the home of paella, and Ximo, _____ loves to cook, told me paella means 'pan' in local languages. He is sure that by the end of the trip, my idea of paella _____ (change) completely. Apparently, the most popular day to eat paella is Thursday, _____ almost every restaurant serves it. However, we _____ (eat) it at home with Ximo's grandparents. They _____ (use) the same recipe for decades, and Ximo says it's delicious. The only thing is that Valencian paella contains rabbit, _____ I have never tried before, so that will be a new experience for me!

- E. Combine the sentences using a suitable relative clause. Make any necessary changes.

1. Sean's parents work at the market. We often meet there after school.
2. I see Jasmine every day. She walks to school with me.
3. Our music teacher is a creative person. Her lessons are original.
4. One of the ingredients in the risotto was peas. I hate them.
5. The pasta was very spicy. You made it for supper.
6. Let's meet at the café after 11.00 am. It's not very crowded then.