

Subject Complements Practice Exercise 1

Directions: Determine whether the underlined subject complement is a predicate noun, predicate adjective, or predicate pronoun.

1. The plane ride was very fun.
  - A. predicate noun
  - B. predicate adjective
  - C. predicate pronoun
2. Mr. Wallace is my teacher.
  - A. predicate noun
  - B. predicate adjective
  - C. predicate pronoun
3. The members of the club were they.
  - A. predicate noun
  - B. predicate adjective
  - C. predicate pronoun
4. The glacier was massive!
  - A. predicate noun
  - B. predicate adjective
  - C. predicate pronoun
5. I am very sleepy today.
  - A. predicate noun
  - B. predicate adjective
  - C. predicate pronoun
6. They are my grandparents!
  - A. predicate noun
  - B. predicate adjective
  - C. predicate pronoun
7. That juice is fresh from the market.
  - A. predicate noun
  - B. predicate adjective
  - C. predicate pronoun

8. The winner of the contest was he.
- A. predicate noun
  - B. predicate adjective
  - C. predicate pronoun
9. That reclining chair is so comfortable.
- A. predicate noun
  - B. predicate adjective
  - C. predicate pronoun
10. They were the counselors for the weekend camp.
- A. predicate noun
  - B. predicate adjective
  - C. predicate pronoun