

Instructions:

Choose the correct form of the verb in parentheses.

Airlines usually _____ (inspect / are inspecting) aircraft before every flight.

Engineers _____ (test / are testing) new navigation systems this month.

Pilots _____ (follow / are following) strict safety procedures every day.

Aircraft manufacturers _____ (design / are designing) more efficient engines these days.

Maintenance teams _____ (check / are checking) fuel systems regularly.

Companies _____ (invest / are investing) in sustainable aviation technologies at the moment.

Airports _____ (operate / are operating) under international safety standards.

Researchers _____ (develop / are developing) electric aircraft for future use.

Cabin crews usually _____ (prepare / are preparing) the cabin before boarding.

Airlines _____ (introduce / are introducing) new digital systems this year.

Engineers _____ (work / are working) on improving flight efficiency right now.

Aircraft usually _____ (require / are requiring) regular maintenance checks.

Companies _____ (expand / are expanding) their training programs these days.

Pilots _____ (communicate / are communicating) with air traffic control during flights.

Airports _____ (upgrade / are upgrading) their security systems at the moment.