Section 1 – Active diagnosis (orthographic awareness)

Find the mistakes (if applicable) in the following sentences and correct them

1. One of the main reason why people is stressed is because of work overload.
2. The amount of informations available online make it difficult to focus.
3. Each of the students have to submit their assignment by Friday.
4. This kind of problems are common in modern societies.
5. There has been many changes in the way people communicates.
6. The research show that social media have a negative impact on mental health.
7. People tends to underestimate the effects of stress on their body.
8. A number of students was absent due to personal issues.
9. The company don't provide enough trainings for new employees.
10. Many equipments used in the experiment was outdated.
11. The increase of remote jobs have created new challenges.
12. Neither the teacher nor the students was aware of the mistake.
13. There is several factors that contributes to job dissatisfaction.
14. Most people believes that success depend of hard work.
15. This information were collected through online surveys.
16. The lack of clear instructions lead to many misunderstandings.
17. People often forgets how important work-life balance is.
18. The number of applicants have increased significantly this year.
19. These type of decisions requires careful consideration.
20. Much people are concerned about the future of artificial intelligence.

LIVEWORKSHEETS