LIKES AND DISLIKES – Movies, TV Programs & Music

We can use these verbs to talk about entertainment:

- like
- love
- enjoy
- prefer
- hate
- don't like
- don't enjoy
- don't love
- really like
- can't stan

Examples:
- I like movies.
- She loves music.
- They enjoy TV programs.
- I don't like horror movies.
- He doesn't like reality shows.

Note: Remember to add -s to the verb for the third person (he / she / it) in affirmative sentences, and use doesn't in negative sentences.

Giving reasons: we can use Object Pronouns for giving for information about likes and dislikes

Examples:

- My friend likes horror movies BUT I don't like THEM because I get scared.

- Sara loves pop music AND I love IT too

LIVEWORKSHEETS

EXERCISES

Exercise 1: Choose the correct option

1. I _____ action movies. (like / likes)
2. She _____ to pop music. (listen / listens)
3. They _____ horror movies. (don't like / doesn't like)
4. He _____ TV series. (enjoy / enjoys)

Exercise 2: Complete the sentences with a verb of likes and dislikes

1. I _____ comedies.
2. She _____ to music every day.
3. We _____ like reality shows.
4. He _____ love horror movies.

Exercise 3: Replace with it or them

1. I like this song. → I like _____.
2. She loves those movies. → She loves _____.
3. We enjoy that TV program. → We enjoy _____.

Exercise 4: Write about you

1. I like _____ because _____.
2. I don't like _____.
3. I love _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS