TRS601 – Part 1 – Test

1.In international relations, a country might accept a _____ to achieve a long-term advantage in a peace treaty.

A) downfall

B) tactical loss

C) strategic

D) cede

2.The researcher argued that the results were _____, as they had been verified by multiple independent laboratories.

A) critical

B) overstated

C) analogous

D) indisputable

3.Effective _____ is essential for universities to ensure that both research and teaching departments have enough funding.

A) financial prosperity

B) market superiority

C) resource allocation

D) protectionist measure

4.The professor noted that the student's argument did not _____ the evidence presented in the primary sources.

A) correspond to

B) engage in

C) specialize in

D) devolve into

5.Many historians believe that the _____ of the empire was caused by internal corruption rather than external invasions.

A) antiquity

B) hallmark

C) approach

LIVEWORKSHEETS

D) downfall

6.In biology, a _____ is any organism or substance, such as a virus or bacterium, that can cause disease.

A) antigen

B) antibody

C) pathogen

D) symptom

7.The government decided to _____ new environmental regulations to reduce the amount of industrial waste.

A) foster

B) enact

C) curb

D) trigger

8.Although the two theories seem different, they are actually _____ in their core assumptions about human behavior.

A) analogous

B) equivalent

C) contemporary

D) robust

9.The university aims to _____ a sense of community among students from diverse cultural backgrounds.

A) cultivate

B) resuscitate

C) foster

D) hone

10.It is _____ that increasing the price of a product sometimes leads to higher demand if it is perceived as a luxury item.

A) generic

B) episodic

C) fluid

D) counterintuitive

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11.The _____ of the printing press in the 15th century revolutionized the way information was shared across Europe.

A) advent

B) scrutiny

C) hallmark

D) approach

12.Scientists are working to _____ the virus globally through widespread vaccination programs.

A) eliminate

B) eradicate

C) sterilize

D) infiltrate

13.The economic crisis was not just a minor _____; it led to a decade of slow growth and high unemployment.

A) trauma

B) downfall

C) sanctions

D) hiccup

14.To improve their skills, athletes must _____ their techniques through hours of daily practice and feedback.

A) cultivate

B) foster

C) hone

D) specialize in

15.The study of _____ allows us to understand how ancient civilizations lived and governed themselves.

A) betterment

B) virtue

C) antiquity

D) hallmark

LIVEWORKSHEETS

16.When the experiment began to _____, the team had to quickly adjust their variables to prevent a total failure.

A) devolve into

B) wither

C) go awry

D) cede

17.The city implemented _____ measures to reduce the level of fine particulates in the air during the winter months.

A) robust

B) sustainable

C) critical

D) stringent

18.A _____ approach to the problem would involve looking at it from multiple perspectives before making a decision.

A) critical

B) savvy

C) intellectual

D) strategic

19.The vaccine was designed to _____ a strong immune response without causing the actual disease.

A) trigger

B) render

C) elicit

D) administer

20.Despite the challenges, the small business began to _____ after it started exporting its products to international markets.

A) resuscitate

B) flourish

C) cultivate

D) leverage

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Matching Task

Column A	Column B
1. Self-identity	A. The government decided to _____ the disputed territory to its neighbor as part of the final peace agreement.
2. Sanctions	B. Medical professionals must _____ all surgical instruments to prevent the spread of infections during operations.
3. Sterilize	C. The university's research center aims to _____ its global network to attract more international funding for its projects.
4. Leverage	D. Sociologists argue that an individual's _____ is heavily influenced by their upbringing and the community they live in.
5. Import quota	E. The nation experienced a period of great _____ after it discovered vast natural gas reserves off its coast.
6. Financial prosperity	F. The international community imposed strict economic _____ on the country to protest its violation of human rights.
7. Contagious	G. It is the responsibility of the health clinic to _____ the flu vaccine to all elderly residents before the winter starts.
8. Administer	H. Because the new strain of the virus is highly _____, schools were closed to prevent a massive local outbreak.
9. Sustainable	I. To protect local farmers, the administration introduced a strict _____ on the amount of foreign grain allowed into the country.
10. Cede	J. The city council is looking for _____ energy solutions, such as solar and wind power, to reduce its carbon footprint.

LIVEWORKSHEETS