Hi Darshna,

How are you? I <sup>1</sup>  my cousins in Wales right now. I <sup>2</sup>  them with my parents every year. They live in Cardiff, the capital city of Wales. It's an interesting place and the people are kind and <sup>3</sup>  to us.

Do you know what the Welsh national costume looks like? It's black, white and red, so it isn't very <sup>4</sup> .

The women wear a <sup>5</sup>  black skirt and a white <sup>6</sup> . They wear a traditional black <sup>7</sup>  on their heads and some black <sup>8</sup>  too.

Students in Wales <sup>9</sup>  the Welsh language in school, so my cousin can speak it well. My parents and I <sup>10</sup>  a bit while we're here. My cousin Lewis <sup>11</sup>  us six words a day! He needs to be <sup>12</sup>  with us as we're slow learners!

Anyway, wela'i di wedyn! That's 'See you later' in Welsh.

From

Kieran
