

Tenses Review unit 1 Connections

Instructions: Each sentence contains one tense or aspect error. Correct it

1. I have been knowing her since we worked together in 2015.

2. By the time we arrived, the meeting already finished.

3. He was working in the company for five years before moving abroad.

4. I would tell you earlier if I would have known the answer.

5. They have discussed the issue yesterday during the meeting.

6. She is working on the report since early this morning.

7. We were informed that the company expands into Asia next year.

8. Hardly had the presentation started when the projector breaks down.

9. I didn't realise how serious the problem is until it was too late.

10. He has been promoted twice since he works for the organisation.

11. If the manager listened more carefully, the conflict wouldn't escalate last week.

12. I was exhausted because I worked all night on the proposal.
