

Restrictive and Non-Restrictive Elements

Directions: Choose whether the underlined clause is Restrictive or Non-Restrictive

1. There is a boy in my batch who is too conscious about his hair.
2. Mahatma Gandhi who studied law in England led India's freedom movement.
3. I did my undergrad in Boston where some of the top universities are based.
4. Those who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones at others.
5. The house where no one has lived for years looks like a ghost house.
6. You own quite a comfortable car which is adequate for you.
7. He who has health has hope; and he who has hope has everything.
8. My mother who saw spark in my eyes for colors and design nudged me towards a course in fashion design.
9. Don't live a lifestyle that overextends your means.
10. Anyone who plays the game can teach the game.