JAMAICA

Negril is a small town on the west coast of Jamaica. There are seven miles of beaches and tourists love scuba diving, sailing or windsurfing. Many visitors just go swimming or lie on the beach. At the end of the day, you can go to Rick's Cafe to have a drink and watch the sun go down.

There are two reggae music festivals in Jamaica: SunFest and SunSplash. The SunFest is in May at Montego Bay. It starts in the afternoon and goes on all night. You can sing, dance or just listen to Jamaica's top reggae musicians.

The countryside in Jamaica is beautiful too. The Blue Mountains are in the centre of the island. Jamaica's famous coffee comes from this area. You can go to a coffee plantation for the weekend. It is great to get up early and have breakfast watching the sun come up.

Spanish Town is Jamaica's historic capital. It is 480 years old and it is 13 miles west of Kingston, the modern capital. The town square has a Spanish design and there is a beautiful cathedral. In the Arawk Museum you can learn the history of Jamaica's first people – the Arawk Indians.

The Bob Marley Museum is in Bob Marley's house in Kingston. You can see the recording studio, Bob's bicycle and some of his clothes there. There is also a collection of photographs and posters.
