

PHRASAL VERBS : GO

FILL IN THE BLANKS WITH THE CORRECT FORMS OF THE PHRASAL VERBS BELOW

go after (follow) go out with (date) go against (oppose)

go after (try to achieve) go without (lack something)

go ahead (start) go over (visit someone nearby)

go out (leave home for an event) go back (return) go over (review)

Father and daughter _____ home after they had a nice time ice-skating out.

Mr. Tower is _____ the new school project. He doesn't want any mistakes.

We and Mr. Steam _____ to Jack's house to say "get well soon"

Did you hear that Lucy is _____ William and they really love each other?

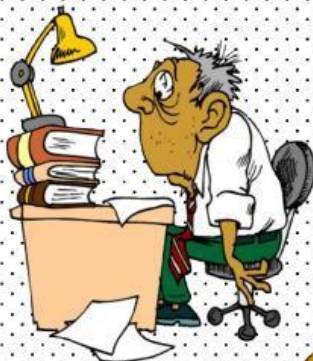

Look! That brown dog a _____ a bone because he is very hungry.

Christopher _____ his dreams and he became a well-known singer and guitarist.

Richard _____ and had his dinner at a restaurant yesterday evening.

Mr. Tumbler is _____ sleep nowadays because he is working on an important project.

The runner should _____ or he will lose the race.

Our school team is _____ the Riverdale School team.

PHRASAL VERBS : GO

ANSWER KEY

FILL IN THE BLANKS WITH THE CORRECT FORMS OF THE PHRASAL VERBS BELOW

go after (follow) go out with (date) go against (oppose)
 go after (try to achieve) go without (lack something)
 go ahead (start) go over (visit someone nearby)
 go out (leave home for an event) go back (return) go over (review)

Father and daughter went back home after they had a nice time ice-skating out.

Mr. Tower is going over the new school project. He doesn't want any mistakes.

We and Mr. Steam went over to Jack's house to say "get well soon"

Did you hear that Lucy is going out with William and they really love each other?

Look! That brown dog is going after a bone because he is very hungry.

Christopher went after his dreams and he became a well-known singer and guitarist.

Mr. Tumbler is going without sleep nowadays because he is working on an important project.

Our school team is going against the Riverdale School team.

The runner should go ahead or he will lose the race.

Richard went out and had his dinner at a restaurant yesterday evening.