

|                            |          |       |              |      |             |
|----------------------------|----------|-------|--------------|------|-------------|
| Subject                    | English  | Class | 11/ ----     | Date | ---/11/2026 |
| Student's or Groupe's Name |          |       |              |      |             |
| Type of WS                 | Remedial |       | Excellent Ss |      | General Ss  |
|                            |          |       |              | ✓    | Other:      |

D. Read the text below and circle the correct verb form.

Before the Internet, the only way to receive information on current events was through television, radio and newspapers. The Internet 1 changed / was changed people's lives and it 2 is using / is being used by more and more people every day as a means of communication as well as a way to keep up to date. Specifically, recent studies 3 have shown / have been shown that about 30% more people rely on the Internet for their information than in 2007. Barry Smith, the owner of the NewsforU website, says, 'We 4 have seen / have been seen a major increase in the number of people who visit our website in the last years. In the past, news websites weren't as popular and television 5 considered / was considered the best way to keep up with current events. Now people 6 can choose / can be chosen from thousands of sites which ones they 7 will inform / will be informed by, instead of relying only on a few channels on TV or newspapers at the newsstand.'