

I. Decide if the sentences are true (T) or false (F).

1. They both like Thai food.
2. Victor went to Thai restaurant yesterday.
3. The seafood place is in a department store.
4. Sara eats any kind of food.
5. They need to get a bus to go to Selale.
6. Sara doesn't like Turkish food.
7. There is a great selection of different dishes in Turkish restaurant.
8. They are definitely eating in Selale.

II. Answer the question.

Which of the three restaurants in this conversation would you prefer to eat in? Why?