

SIENNA SPIRO - Die On This Hill

Got me to stay, said _____ need me
Stop _____ these words don't _____ a meaning
No, they don't, at _____ not to me
There'll be a day, I'll be more creative
A poetic way to say I'm not leaving
To the world, not to your face, mm
I'll take my pride, stand _____ for you
No, I'm not blind, just seeing it through
You take my life _____ for the thrill
I'll take _____ and die on this hill
I always will
I know that I look stubborn and patient
But you wrote the book, I _____ a _____
To be loved, to be loved and nothing more
And you _____ word, do you want a medal?
The way that someone leaves this world is all just levels
[Refrain]
I'll be here the whole night
I'll be here _____ I care
Yeah, I know you _____ care
I know nothing could matter
God, I wish something mattered to you

Vocabulary

- A. 'cause I care
- B. just for the thrill
- C. there'll be a day
- D. to die on this hill
- E. to get someone to stay
- F. to keep one's word
- G. to leave this world
- H. to see it through
- I. to take a page out (of someone's book)
- J. to take my pride
- K. to your face

Choose the situation that best matches the expression (write only the letter)

1. She was already packing her bags, but he talked calmly, explained his feelings, and convinced her not to walk away.
2. He knows life is hard now, but he truly believes things will change eventually, even if it takes years.
3. Instead of gossiping behind his back, she decided to tell him the truth directly, even though it was uncomfortable.
4. After the public humiliation, he refused to beg or explain himself — he chose to walk away with dignity.
5. The project was exhausting and full of setbacks, but she refused to quit halfway and finished what she started.
6. He didn't do it for money or fame, he did it because the risk itself excited him.
7. Everyone advised her to compromise, but she refused to back down, even if it cost her everything.
8. Watching his mentor handle criticism with calm confidence, he started copying the same approach.
9. He promised he would be there no matter what and when the time came, he didn't disappear.
10. The novel talks about love, legacy, and what remains after a person passes away.
11. She stayed up all night listening, helping, and supporting him, not because she had to, but because it mattered to her.