

Germany is a rich and _____ country in the continent of Europe. In the German language, it is called Deutschland. Did you know? The country shares _____ with nine European countries. Denmark, Poland, Czech Republic, Switzerland, Austria, France, Belgium, Luxembourg, and the Netherlands. Germany stretches from the mountainous range of the Alps, across the North European plain, right through to the North Sea and the Baltic. Germany has both beautiful rivers and _____ scenery, such as the Black Forest, and many castles from the Middle Ages which tourists can visit. The population, which means the number of people living in a country, is around 83 million. Germany's capital city is Berlin. After the end of World War II, two separate countries were _____, West Germany and East Germany. In Berlin, a concrete wall divided the city into two parts. In 1990, East and West Germany became one country again. Germans are well known for their _____. Car making is one of Germany's main industries. BMW, Volkswagen, and Mercedes-Benz cars are all German. Their food _____ from region to region. German sausage, Wurst, is world famous, and there are over a hundred different types. The number of Germans who drink beer is one of the highest in the world. The country is also famous for its sport and culture, having won the Football World Cup four times. We hope you get to visit Germany _____ if you haven't already.

powerful, borders, wonderful, established, engineering, varies, soon