Valentine's Day

READING COMPREHENSION ACTIVITY

Valentine's Day is celebrated on February 14th in many countries. People use this day to show love and appreciation to partners, friends, and family. Some people exchange cards, chocolates, or flowers, while others prefer simple activities, such as cooking dinner together or going for a walk. Today, Valentine's Day is also linked to shops and restaurants, which offer special gifts and menus. However, not everyone enjoys the celebration. In recent years, many people use the day to celebrate friendship or self-love instead of romance.
