When we tell a story, we may need to express some situations that do not involve actions. For example, we may need to talk about conditions, situations, and facts in the past. Was is used with a singular subject and were is used with plural subjects. Look at the examples:

- There was a strange message from the game.
- He was no longer at home.
- There were also gauntlets on his hands.
- There were mangrove trees everywhere.

b. Look at the scene. Say the situation in the scene using was and were.
