

Relative Clauses – Exercise

1. Join the two sentences. Use that.

Two sentences	Write ONE sentence
The boy is named Tom. He plays the guitar.
I can't find the book. It was on the table.
The woman slipped on the stairs. She wasn't paying attention.
We want to watch the show. It begins at eight o'clock.
The writer became popular. He wrote those stories.
The cup is cracked. It fell off the shelf.

2. Complete the sentences. Use who, which or that.

Two sentences	Write ONE sentence
He's wearing the jacket. He bought it last week.
Can I speak to the teacher? I met her this morning.
Anna loved the cake. You baked it yesterday.
They are the actors. I talked about them earlier.
He saves all the money. He earns it himself.
The email has just arrived. You sent it yesterday.
The movie was exciting. You recommended it to me.
The student is very talkative. I sit next to him.	