Quiz about the songs: will you be able to match each paragraph with the correct title of the song? Write the correct number.

A. 1963: I'm newly and happily married. I moved to New-York with my husband but I find it cold here. I feel so homesick: I miss the sun.

B. I'm unemployed: I can't work anymore because of the economic crisis. I'm seeking a job, but the market doesn't need me. I feel so useless.

C. I may have been weak, but it's over now: I'm ready to fight and I will succeed. I am an example of female empowerment.

D. I want to offer a St Patrick's gift to quarantined Italians singing to each other from their balconies because of coronavirus outbreak and social distancing. I also want to pay tribute to nurses, doctors, carers on the front line.

E. I am jobless and homeless. I am a vagabond, I am a homeless Bohemian: that's the name I was given in the western United States in the late 19th century. I used to jump from a freight train to another when I wanted to travel.

1. Unstoppable by Sia.
2. California dreamin' by The Mamas ans the Papas.
3. Like a Hobo by Charlie Winston.
4. Sing4life by Bono, will.i.am originally called Let your Love be known by Bono.
5. Don't give up by Peter Gabriel (ft. Kate Bush).

Find the synonyms and join the arrows:

recently/freshly=	=empowerment
look for=	=tribute
feeble, fragile=	=homeless Bohemian
confined=	=quarantined
emancipation, liberation=	=weak
a present=	=useless
homage=	=newly
merchandise =	=unemployed
incompetent=	=freight
not working=	=seek
Hobo=	=gift

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS