Serena – Good morning, Jane! Ready for the Chemistry test?

Jane – Good morning! Yes, I'm ready. I had a good night's sleep and a wonderful breakfast, so I'm full of energy!

Serena – So am I! I can't imagine myself skipping breakfast! I usually have cereal with milk, a glass of orange juice and, if I have the time, some fruit.

Jane – I know what you mean! Breakfast is the most important and delicious meal of the day. At least for me!

Serena – Me too! When I wake up later at weekends, I love to have a real English breakfast. The hardest part is choosing: delicious bacon and eggs, fried sausages, toasts, baked beans or fried tomatoes... And of course, some orange juice or a cup of tea with milk!

Jane – Is it? At weekends, I'm more into a sweet breakfast... A cup of tea, a glass of juice or milk, some bread or croissants with jam, cheese or ham really make my day!

Serena – Oh Jane! The bell is ringing; let's go to class before I start getting hungry again!

Jane – You're right! Good luck on your test!
