--

My great-grandpa is in his eighties, but you could never guess his age. He is quite <sup>1</sup> _____ and always stands straight with a funny sparkle in his eyes as if inviting you to have a chat. His hair is <sup>2</sup> _____ and wavy and he sometimes wears it in a ponytail!

He loves wearing colourful <sup>3</sup> _____ shirts that he buys in second-hand shops. He is <sup>4</sup> _____ on senior men's fashion trends but he can't <sup>5</sup> _____ the thought of spending much on clothes.

He is the most <sup>6</sup> _____ and generous person I know – he always has time to talk to me.

Y: _____
A No problem. It's my fault.
B You can wear mine if you like.
C Don't mention it.
- 2 X: I didn't mean to be impolite. I apologise.
Y: _____
A It's OK. Don't worry about that.
B I'm all right, but thanks for asking.
C With pleasure.
- 3 X: Do you think I should post this photo on my profile?
Y: _____
A You'd better do the same.
B If I were you, I wouldn't.
C Thanks for the advice.
- 4 X: _____
Y: Of course. What is it?
X: Would you get me some toothpaste at the shop?
A Can you do me a favour?
B Do you want me to do something?
C How can I help?

5 X: Oh, you're going to clean out your wardrobe. Can I give you a hand?

Y: _____

X: OK. What shall we start with then?

A I'd really like to help.

B Thank you. I can manage.

C That would be great, thanks.

6 X: What are you going to wear to the party?

Y: _____

X: Neither have I.

B I haven't made up my mind yet.

C I've been thinking about something casual.

7 X: What is Paul's sister like?

Y: _____

X: Is she? Quite different from Paul then. He's quiet and shy.

A Very friendly, but she likes being alone most of the time.

B Just like her brother. They're both very sociable.

C She's really outgoing and talkative.

8 X: Right, next question. What is your strong point?

Y: _____

X: I agree. You're also honest.

A I'm quite kind and loyal.

B I'm lazy and insecure.

C I feel pleased and moved.

9 X: Does your brother do a lot of sport?

Y: _____

X: Really? I thought you were both sporty types.

A He does. He's mad about tennis.

B Yes, he's always been into it.

C He's not very keen on it, actually.

10 X: How do you feel when you read comments like this one on the Internet?

Y: They always make me angry. I can't stand them, to be honest.

X: _____

A I agree. They're very moving.

B You're right. They're so frustrated.

C I find them annoying too.

6 Read the text. From options A–D, choose the answer which fits each gap.

A day to make new friends

Do you know what takes place on the 30th of July? It's the International Day of Friendship, declared by the United Nations in 2011. The idea behind it is to encourage friendship between countries, nations and cultures. Friendship builds peaceful coexistence and can help people <sup>1</sup> _____ up to the problems and challenges of the modern world. After all, friendship is one of the basic universal values that we all share.

On an individual level, everyone knows the importance of friends in life. Friends are with us in the happiest moments, <sup>2</sup> _____ pride in our achievements. They also cheer us up when we're down in <sup>3</sup> _____. That said, we realise that friends don't necessarily need to have a lot in common. But even if their views and beliefs set them <sup>4</sup> _____, they talk and try to understand each other. And when you respect the differences, you don't discriminate <sup>5</sup> _____.

The UN thinks that applying these rules on a large scale could lead to the elimination of intolerance and discrimination. I think so too. I truly believe that the world would be a better place if we all had a friend in every corner of the globe.
