

1 Choose the correct options to complete the sentences.

- 1 Can this fitness tracker / portable charger monitor your heart rate?
- 2 I don't think wireless headphones / driverless cars are safe enough to use on the roads yet.
- 3 We were flying the drone / smartwatch over the sea when it ran out of charge.
- 4 The interactive whiteboard / video game console allows teachers to give more interesting classes.
- 5 A smart speaker / fitness tracker can control different electronic devices and answer simple questions.
- 6 This smartwatch / virtual-reality headset has most of the same features as my mobile phone.
- 7 Do you have any drones / wireless headphones I could borrow? I want to listen to some music.
- 8 We've had this video game console / portable charger for years. I still play it a lot.

2 Match the words in the box to the definitions.

driverless car drone fitness tracker portable charger video game console virtual-reality headset

- 1 a small aircraft without a pilot that is controlled remotely drone
- 2 a device that charges the battery of small electronic items without using the main power supply
- 3 an electronic device for playing games on
- 4 a car that does not have a person controlling it
- 5 a piece of equipment you wear over your eyes and ears so you can see and hear computer images
- 6 an electronic device that records information about your physical health and activity

3 Choose the correct options to complete the sentences.

- 1 I thought his new selection of jokes were very original / originable.
- 2 My new smartwatch is proving very useful / usably.
- 3 No one knows why the house has been empty for so long, it's all rather mysteryful / mysterious.
- 4 I've been working in this industry for years and it's very profitful / profitable.
- 5 You've just set a new school record which is very impressive / impressful.
- 6 This company is selling some very innovative / innovation products.

- 7 I've been eating chillies for years, but I've never tried one this spicy / seasonable before.
- 8 My favourite museums are the ones with interactional / interactive exhibits.

4 Complete the sentences with the adjective form of the words in brackets.

- 1 Your handwriting is very messy, don't be so careless (care) with your work.
- 2 Have you ever met anyone incredibly (fame), like a huge celebrity?
- 3 We had a very (enjoy) afternoon at the park, it was lovely.
- 4 This pen has no ink left now, so it's (use).
- 5 It was very kind and (thought) of Jill to give you this book.
- 6 Lots of people enjoy watching the (tradition) dances of different countries.
- 7 They've been having a very (adventure) holiday in Australia; climbing, kayaking and diving.
- 8 I love certain (season) fruits like strawberries and plums.

5 Choose the correct options.

- A: Hi Uncle Jim. You look really well. I hope you're being ¹ careless / careful after your operation.
- B: I am, thanks, Todd. I'm following a new health regime and it's actually quite ² enjoyment / enjoyable. I've bought a fitness ³ speaker / tracker and I'm doing more exercise every day.
- A: That's very ⁴ impressive / creative! Especially as you never liked doing exercise before!
- B: I know. I've decided I need to be more ⁵ adventurous / reliable. If I wear ⁶ driverless / wireless headphones so I can listen to music while I move, then it's not so bad.
- A: And how's the diet? Is Auntie Liz ⁷ letting / making you eat lots of healthy food?
- B: She's trying! She'd like me to ⁸ live on / eat up fruit, vegetables and chicken, I think!
- A: Oh dear!