Healthy Living with Susan Miller

Welcome to my blog! As you know, I really enjoy eating delicious meals. When I was younger, I used to cook with lots of olive oil and butter because I wanted my food to be tasty. I used to believe that healthy food meant tasteless food, but today I know better.

One healthy dish that has become my favourite is the chicken salad. This colourful dish gives our body all the necessary vitamins and proteins and tastes amazing too! The secret to a perfect chicken salad is in its ingredients, so make sure you use only the freshest ones. You can use other kinds of meat instead of chicken, but I prefer it because it goes well with vegetables. I like to put lots of lettuce, tomatoes, cucumbers, an onion and a pepper. Then I grate some cheese and mix it in too. Finally, I add a tablespoon of olive oil and pour some fresh lemon juice on top.

Try this salad. You are going to love it!
